Mr. Hillier was the best kind of class advisor. He always remained in the background except when approached for help or suggestions. He never pushed his opinions on the form, but instead let the form decide on matters for itself. However, when approached for help or advice, Mr. Hillier was always ready. His advice on money matters and his aid for the dances were invaluable.

For a job well done, thank you.
Phil was never spectacular like some members of his class, but was more reliable than most. He could always be trusted to do a job, and do it well. In athletics, Phil was always a dogged team player and has earned recognition as such. A winner of six varsity letters, he was also All Conference Honorable Mention as center and was captain of the crew. In extra-curricular activities, he held starring roles in two school plays and was a skilled artist. And as Senior Praefect and a class officer, Phil was an inspiration with his moderation and good sense.

For four years of good work, thank you.

First Row: Mr. Hillier, advisor, Capers, Chapin, Fishburne, Tonks, Pyle, Anderson B., Shuster, Schoonover, Porter.
Second Row: Crawford, Cooper, Burkett, Walke, Varnedoe, Hunt D., McCaghen, Forbes, Ball.
Fourth Row: Beal, Thompson, Gordy, Beaird, Pfeifer, Loomis, Stewart, Hillier, Kerr.
CLASS HISTORY

Our Second Form was a big Form—determined to go someplace, and with the physical height and strength to reach it. Chapin and Gordy were having height fights, and Pyron, Hillier, and Stewart were none too short either. Of the original twelve, seven survived the academic onslaught of St. Andrew’s-by-the-Pond. The first year promised an athletic strength for the school; Chapin was wrestling and filling in at Varsity Soccer; Gordy was on J. V. Baseball; Dickie Potter starred in J. V. Football; and John Schoonover coxed the Varsity Crew. Schoonover scored academically and led his form through the rigors of the East Dorm year, dictated by Helm and Godshalk, both of whom Sanderson was determined to run through the mill. Sanderson and Rose soon left the picture, but Fishburne and Tarrant had been so impressed with the Form that they insisted upon joining us for another try at the Third Form.

The first day of the Third Form year was no different for us than for any other class; the old hands shunned the new boys, and the long-lasting cliques had their start. Down the Alley, things were easy and friendly until one night a six-foot Chocolate Chippy ran to Kirchberger’s alcove where he was frightened by a spider. Murray and Deschamps fought long and hard to oppress the Proletariat. Across the cloister, the rivals in the East Dorm were fighting Gordo Appell and Bob Faux. George Shuster found a natural attraction in the form, and moved up to it after two weeks as a Second Former, and proceeded immediately to lead the form academically. Daddy’s biology project was seventy-five pages long; his academic lead over the form which disappeared only a few times throughout our five years was threatened as a freshman only by Walke and Kerr, who ended the year two and three behind him. The Winter term was livened by Steve Fuller’s “break” and the mystery of the decide when the entire school lined up for a criminal investigation. Shoemaker clocked the hours before the year’s end, which was marked by varsity athletic accomplishment by Anderson, Fishburne, and Heckscher. We ended the year with Phil Tonks as our President and Mr. Hillier as our valuable advisor. We heard boasts in last year’s valedictory that their form would be a great part of our past. The Class of ’63—who we are most proud of—is they did not say good-by, but thanks you all.

As Second Formers, we had set our sights on the best, and we were determined to carry through our purpose. The seniors dominated the soccer squad, near and far field, and there was an all-senior line from which Captain Al Crichton made All-Conference. Dick Shoemaker won the title of form propaganda master because of his service above and beyond in English class; Dick Porter surprised everyone as he helped Mr. Washburn teach Calculus. Jimmy Cooper and Big Daddy joined Pfeifer as Varsity Wrestlers, and Stan Thompson and Chip Gordy led basketball to break the school’s scoring record. Kerr and Hughes banded together and sent propaganda ripping through the school in The Cardinal; and the Cliosophical Society were under boss rule.

We heard boasts in last year’s valedictory that their form was one of the best things that ever happened to the school. There would be something wrong with any form if it didn’t think so . . . so we do, too. But we take it a step further. This school is one of the best things that ever happened to us. It has seen us grow—Hunt now has a deep voice; no longer can he sing soprano solos; Schoonover started shaving last week . . . and we are all on our way to college. Maybe all of us don’t retract some of the remarks we’ve made about the school, but we are united in thanking Phil and Dexter for leading us and for breaking a lot of ice. To Mr. Hillier for the hours of dance preparations and food details, to all the masters—our advisors and teachers—and more especially to our mentors Moss and Cameron.

In three days, the school will be a memory to us; it will also be a great part of our past. The Class of ’63—of which we are most proud—does not say good-by, but thanks you all very much.

Re: Man of the Year Article

Dick:

December 7, 1980

Bear with my feeble suggestions for potential Men of the Year for Vol. CXII, No. 1. The small paragraphs are all the background that is at my disposal, and I have wanted to dispose of it as quickly as possible. You can take it from there.

Slink Shoemaker, president of the American Astronomers Union, who came to national prominence this year in the A.A.U. Tracking Meet in which he pictorially tracked the fall and deterioration of meteor Argus (R.M.S. 696).

"Big Stink" Kircherger, recently elected chairman of Garbage Workers of America, who received the top honor of the profession toward which he leaned throughout his teen years.

R. Dubney Crawford, the first U.S. Senator ever to start a filibuster on the floor of Congress to block a bill that lasted steadily from early February until the season’s end in June.

Dick Porter, author of My Formative Years at a Dope Addict, who became the idol of millions when, fresh out of college, he formed the famous Calculus Combo. After a collapse in 1978, Dick spent a year getting the monkey off his back.

The backfield combination of "Crazylegs" Hunt and "Manly Stanley" Thompson, for their memorable play when three tacklers were on Thompson, and the latter lateralled to Hunt who, already in the air, ran for a touchdown in the N.F.L. Championship game.

Herr Wilhelm Pfeifer and Sir Estabrook Tonks, European professional wrestling tag team, for defeating ten time national champions at Yankee Stadium last June. "We live clean," said Tonks, explaining their victory.

New York Vice Squad Chief, Jess Gaither, who single-handedly uncovered a billion dollar diamond theft ring when investigating the report of a drunken brawl in the Greenwich Village apartment of artist Kirk Varnedoe. At the time of entry, Biologist-Author George Shuster, author of My First Breed Book, broke into a mad dance singing strains of "Lipstick on Your Collar." Chief Gaither freed the ladies present and took the men to headquarters.

K. Stuart Hughes, internationally known race driver, whose magnificent comeback at the Main Line Grand Prix gained world-wide recognition after his having suffered a two week coma from pussy-footing it into a tree, backwards, at sixty m.p.h. Hughes spends his leisure hours in the Paoli (Pa.) Esso Station.

Admiral Chip Gordy, whose naval career reached its apex when he single-handedly commanded The Duck across the Atlantic. The $4,000 shell was manned by Rob Pyle and Lightnin' Al Crichton, whose speed got him to Europe ten hours behind Pyle. Of greater note is the one-man shell crossing by Jerry Soderberg, who followed closely behind all the way.

Chris Beal, misguided Westchester Co. District Attorney, who successfully argued a prosecution against pro tennis champion, Cary "Mis-Strung" Fishburne, for the murder of the affable underworld boss, "Bishop" Cooper. As the verdict was returned, Cooper jumped out from behind the judge’s bench and started laughing. The not so Honorable but able Dexter Chapin rose from his seat and in an inexplicable rage tore Cooper limb from limb.

Television star Ogden Hamilton (producer and featured player in long-standing series, "Oogie-Doggie and Doggie-Daddy"), who has been commended by Parent's Magazine and is recommended by Good Housekeeping.

Rusty Capers and Dave Loomis, hard luck electrician team, who were soldered together for life when Capers crossed the wrong wire.

Playboy George E. Forbes, six-time divorced millionaire, who professed at his seventh wedding ceremony that this was his true love. News photographer John Gustin, who caught an award-winning pose of the couple on their honeymoon, expressed his opinion: "After all those trial runs, Forbsie ought to know how to settle down."

Hair expert Rod Ball, who discovered early in the life that thinning hair was the mark of the distinguished man, for his recently discovered Hair Remover. Additional congratulations on advertising campaign in which an elf (E. N. Burkett) rushes through the fog created by C. Brent McCaghren, gives the latter a hair treatment, and gleefully declares "The distinguished man is the Baled man."

Dashing actor Ashmead Pringle, for his frank investigation of the disappearing bars of Dial Soap from the studio showers. He found that studio manager Rick Hillier had felt that the added expense of soap could easily be omitted from the monthly bill. He wishes nobody used Dial Soap.

Roger Walke, honorary president of the WCTU, for his bland essay, "The Puriitarian Instinct of the Abnormal Homo Sapiens."

Soccer star Carlitos Hecksher and Eagles’ half-back "Turk" Buckalo for being elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame. Hall director J. R. Schoonover has repeatedly denied fixed ballots. In the logic of which Mr. Schoonover has become famous, he added, "Besides, if they did play baseball professionally, they'd probably be pretty good anyhow."

Dave Wood, for forming Simplicity Smoke Shacks Associated, the company which makes to order prep school smoking quarters. Mr. Wood feels that every school should have one, for he found his the strongest influence in his otherwise influenceless life.

Also, don't forget to put in the two letters to the Editor that I wrote praising myself or those two articles on my hobbies — build me up, huh!

Your friend and especially mine,

ATHLETICS
VARSITY FOOTBALL

Despite the loss of much of last year's talent, the Saint Andrew's Varsity Football Team compiled a 3-2 record in the newly organized Delaware Independent Schools Conference and a 4-4 overall record. After three games with co-captains, the Saints elected Al Crichton sole captain.

In the first away game of the season, Chestnut Hill avenged last year's defeat with a 19-0 victory. Despite the running of fullback Eric Middleton and the fine offensive play of center Phil Tonks, the inexperienced offense wouldn't click and the defense allowed the Hillers to make several long scoring plays.

In the second game, a Saint fumble on the first play from scrimmage permitted Baltimore's Boy's Latin to score from the twenty-yard line before a large alumni weekend crowd. The Saints soon scored too, but failed to make the extra points and, despite domination for the rest of the game, lost 8-6. Individual standouts in the line were Phil Tonks and Bill Pfeifer, and, in the backfield, Middleton and Bill Hammond.

Led by co-captains Pfeifer and Pyle, the Saints beat Wilmington Friends 20-14 for their first victory of the season. The Big Red's first touchdown came on a twenty-five yard pass from quarterback Jack Pope to freshman halfback Gardner Cadwalader. Middleton capitalized on a Friend's fumble to score from the twenty. Pope's pitch was good for a conversion. A ninety-yard kick-off return by the Friends' Rhodes to end the half, and a forty-five-yard pass at the beginning of the second half tied the score at 14-14. The Saints then sewed up the game with an interception by Cadwalader, and a touchdown by Middleton.

Before a cheering Fathers' Weekend crowd, the Saints evened their record at 2-2 and remained undefeated in the D.I.S.C. with a 22-6 win over Sanford. The Saints' first drive from the opening kick-off ended with a short touchdown pitch from Pope to Middleton. Again, late in the first quarter, Bill Hammond smashed off tackle for another six points. After Sanford racked up their only score, Dick Buckaloo skirted around for the Saints' third score. The final S.A.S. score came late in the fourth quarter with a Sanford safety.

In their fourth game of the season the Big Red routed Baltimore Friends 37-0. Between All-Conference halfback Stan Thompson, who scored eighteen points, and Eric Middleton, who smashed for 12 more, the Saints completely overpowered Friends. Halfback Murray Allen added the final touchdown by catching a short pass from Bunker Hill.

Despite torrential rains, a muddy field and low temperatures, Saint Andrews remained undefeated in conference competition when they were victorious over a spirited Tatnall team, 12-0. After a fine punt return by Buckaloo, Eric Middleton took a twenty yard pass from Pope for the only score until the final quarter when Middleton scored his second touchdown on a 3-yard plunge.

Tower Hill scored on their first drives in both halves to overcome the Saints 22-6. Although the Big Red came alive in the second half, they only managed one score by Middleton. The loss was the Saints' first in the league and made their record 4-3 with Archmere still to play.

In their final game, the Saints were overpowered by undefeated Archmere. The highly topsided 48-0 score had few highlights for S.A.S. fans as the season ended on a somber note.

VARSITY SOCCER

With eight returning lettermen and the supervision of coaches Denny and Maddison, the 1962 soccer team produced an admirable 7-2-1 season. The offense, paced by "Gymp" Heckscher (9), "Melf" Burkett (7), and "Porge" Forbes (6), scored a total of 23 goals. The Saints' defense, characterized by its depth in reliable halfbacks limited the opposition to 1.1 goals per game. However, the Saints' strongest asset in gaining their fourth straight winning season was the excellent leadership of captains Chapin and Heckscher and the high morale of the players.

The Big-Red opened the season in fine style by defeating a stubborn Phelp's team 3-1. Forbes, Blair, and Heckscher each collected a goal in the first half, while the defense starred in the second half.

October 9, the Saints travelled to Wilmington Friends to take on the Quakers during a heavy downpour. However, the Red and White seemed unaffected by the wet conditions as they rolled on to a 5-0 victory. Heckscher and Burkett each contributed two goals and Forbes his second of the season.

October 16 saw the Saints at home to avenge last year's 1-0 loss to Brandywine. The first half was a defensive battle in which Brandywine managed to score once. With a half remaining, the Saints' spirits were still high but Brandywine took command with accurate passing and shooting to come out on top 4-0.

After three days of improvement, the Big-Red played host to Moorestown J.V. before an enthusiastic Father's Day crowd. The Saints entered the scoring column first on a beautiful shot by Fryer Capers. However, penalty involving Captain Chapin resulted in a penalty-shot for the opponents. The ball skidded by Hoffecker and the game went into a 1-1 deadlock. Both defense proved to be impenetrable during the overtime and the Saints had to settle for a 1-1 tie.

On October 17, the Red and White travelled to Westtown in hopes of improving the 2-1-1 log. They did just that in a ruff and tumble game that went into overtime. Burkett tied the score 1-1 late in the third period and Heckscher booted the winning goal early in the overtime. Credit is due the fullbacks Chapin and McCaghren, whom the Westtown forwards discovered were a formidable pair.

In the sixth game of the season, the Big-Red met Wilmington Friends for a second time on the former's home field. The first half ended in a 1-1 deadlock, and the Saints realized that the Quakers had no intentions of losing again. Nevertheless, the Cardinal team surged back. Melf Burkett added his second goal of the game while "Gymp" Heckscher fired in two to leave the Quakers victims for a second time 4-2.

On November 6, the Red and White visited Brandywine, determined to take home a victory despite the absence of Captain Heckscher. With brilliant defensive efforts by halfbacks Kent Hughes and Dick King, and audacious goal tending by "Troll" Hoffecker, the four quarters ended in a scoreless tie. However, midway through the first overtime, "Porge" Forbes capitalized on a loose ball in front of the opponents' goal to put the Big-Red ahead 1-0.

The Brandywine victory was somewhat soured four days later when host Phelps upset the Cardinal booters 1-0. A soggy field, an unfamiliar rubber ball, and bad luck plagued the Saints the whole game.

Things were different three days later as the Red and White, not satisfied with a previous tie, shut out Moorestown 3-0. Captain Heckscher, fully recovered, and George Forbes accounted for the goals while Brent McCaghren and Dex Chapin successfully contained the opponents' offense.

In the last game of the season the Saints played host to Westtown. Spirits were high as the team hoped to end the season with a victory. Yet, Westtown had different plans and despite a tally by Heckscher, the halftime score was 1-1. In the second half, however, the Big-Red's forward line bombed the opponents' goal with five scores by Burkett (2), Forbes (1), Heckscher (1), and Wood (1). The defense refused to allow any goals and the final score was 6-1 to set a new game scoring record.
WON - 7  LOST - 2
TIED - 1
The 1962 J.V. Football team, coached by Messrs Hughes, Gammons and Fishburne, and captained by Sandy Dillon, was not fair, not good; it was the greatest J.V. team ever assembled to represent St. Andrew's on the gridiron. Characterized by excellent attitude, good depth, and the fastest J.V. backfield in the state, as well as the best place-kicker, the little Saints compiled a 7-0 record and became the first team in the history of S.A.S. to be undefeated in a seven game season.

The attitude, evident all season, was one of a team that was sure it could win and was unwilling to be disappointed. The squad's depth was obvious, as substitutions were made frequently during the games and the team was never weakened.

The backfield, sparked by quarterback Dillon, was amazing. Dillon himself baffled his opponents not only with his choice of plays, but also with his shifty running and brilliant passing. The team was blessed with two outstanding fullbacks, Jimmy-Dick Harris and "Fajo" Farrow. The halfbacks, Lar Rockwell and Rid Whitaker were co-high scorers for the season with 42 points apiece (each of them single-handedly outscores the opponents' total season output by 17 points).

The place-kicker was, of course, the Saints' ace Gibby Kane. His "golden toe" converted 9 extra points in 11 tries.

The work of the J.V. line, led by outstanding center Curt Coward, does not show up on paper, unless one can understand that the unbelievable statistics which the backfield compiled were made possible by the all-powerful forward wall.

A full account of each game would serve no purpose. Almost all of them were won by a wide margin. The scores are as follows:

- Milford: 12-7
- Wilm. Friends: 20-0
- Sanford: 20-6
- Tatnall: 28-0
- De La Warr: 41-6
- Archmere: 21-6
- Tower Hill: 32-0

Total scoring: S.A.S. 174; Opponents 25

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL - 1962

This year saw the shattering of a white team tradition of victories as the Red team, coached by Messrs Baum and Walker, wrapped up the season with a 6-1 record, much to the dismay of Messrs Ogilby and Timmins, the White team coaches. The first game ended in tragedy as the Red team thundered down the field for four touchdowns, leaving the White team scoreless. In the next two games the Reds continued their winning streak for a 3-0 record. Fired up by these losses, Ogilby's Oilers won their next game and only victory, despite the desperate struggling of Red's Pratt and Dryden. Not crushed, Baum's Bombers bounced back to a 10-8 victory as Troy Fergen scored the winning points. In the next two games, the White team again yielded to the oncoming tide of Bombers. The last game proved the strength of the Red backfield as Red Dryden made a ninety-eight yard run to seal the game after TD's by both Red captains, Pratt and Richardson.
J.V. FOOTBALL

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL

The young St. Andrew's varsity wrestling team, with three seniors, six juniors, and two sophomores lettering, compiled a highly respectable 9-3 record, winning the first seven matches. The Saints won a tie for second in the Delaware Invitational Tournament, and registered two state champions, second only to William Penn.

Five days after Christmas vacation, the Big Red downed Sanford 31-13, with only one regular first-stringer losing. Cooper, Snyder, Pope, Tonks, and Pfeifer pinned while Hoffecker and Day decisioned in the only weights wrestled.

Again wrestling only predetermined weights, the Saints beat Tatnall 21-13. Hoffecker, Cooper, and Pope pinned, and Rabinowitz and Snyder decisioned.

The winning streak was extended to three with a 20-15 victory over Saint Paul's of Baltimore. Baldwin, Hoffecker, Rutter, Snyder, and Paul decisioned. Only Bill Pfeifer pinned, this a quick fifty-four seconds.

Revenge last year's 18-15 loss, the spirited Saints were victorious over Episcopal High School of Alexandria, 25-20, losing only four matches. Rabinowitz, Hoffecker, Rutter, Pope, and Paul decisioned while Snyder and Pfeifer pinned. Certainly the highlight of the match was Captain Pfeifer's 5:38 pin of Steward, E.H.S.'s co-captain and Metro runner-up.

In the next match the powerful Saints trounced Peddie, Paul, Smith, Rutter, Cooper, Baldwin, and Rabinowitz decisioned. Hoffecker, Snyder, and Pope gained falls. The season's tragedy occurred when Bill Pfeifer blacked out and lost his bid for an undefeated season.

Milford was the next Saints' victim as they crumbled 27-18, despite a good lead after the lower weights. Rabinowitz's tie provided the only S.A.S. points until Hoffecker, Snyder, Pope, and Paul won while Smith, Rutter, and Pfeifer pinned, the latter in nineteen seconds.

Hun provided an unworthy opponent, despite several close matches, by losing 49-0. Rabinowitz, Baldwin, Cooper, Hoffecker, Snyder, and Rutter pinned prior to Pope's riding time decision over New Jersey Champion Jacobs; then Smith and Paul's close matches and Pfeifer's and Schuster's pins closed out the match.

The Saints suffered their first setback of the season at the hands of arch-rival Tower Hill, 11-24, despite fine matches by Baldwin (pin), Hoffecker over T.H.'s ace MacDougal, and by Pope and Pfeifer. Every defeat was by a narrow margin in this disheartening loss.

In a close match that was not decided until the final seconds of Pfeifer's match at heavyweight, the Saints defeated Penn Charter 20-16. Rabinowitz pinned, leading to wins by Snyder, Pope, Smith, Paul, and Pfeifer.

Wrestling last year's State Champion William Penn, the Saints lost. Only Pfeifer, Smith, and Pope won, which, with Hoffecker's tie, made the score 11-24. However, several matches were close, such as Curt Snyder's loss in the last seven seconds to State Champion Kardash.

In the next match, before a Dance Weekend crowd, Baldwin, Hoffecker, Rutter, Snyder, Pope, and Pfeifer pinned, and Cooper, Smith, Paul and Shuster decisioned for a 40-0 shutout over Severn.

To end the season, the Saints dropped a 27-17 decision to powerful Newark. MacSorley and Pope tied, Hoffecker won and Smith and Pfeifer pinned to complete the S.A.S. scoring.

In the Second Annual Delaware Invitational Tournament at Tower Hill School, only Rutter and Pfeifer won championships, but the Saints qualified six wrestlers for the States as Hoffecker, Pope, Snyder, and Paul took third places, helping the Saints tie for second in the team standings.

In the State Championships, Pfeifer and Pope won gold medals, and Snyder and Paul took fourth in their respective weight classes.

VARSITY WRESTLING
WON: 9  LOST: 3
Under the leadership of Captain Stan Thompson, and aided by the strong playing of letter winners Middleton, Gordy, Hammond, Dillon, Coward, and Hillier, the St. Andrew's Varsity basketball team posted a record of seven wins and seven losses, the best record of the past few years. The Saints made their best showing in the Independent Conference, finishing second with a four won, four loss record.

With Senior Thompson and Junior Eric Middleton scoring 27 and 17 respectively, the Saints overwhelmed Sanford Prep 81-66 on the latter's court. Looking for victory number two, the Big Red opposed Moorestown Prep and won a close one 59-57. Two free throws by Thompson and one by Middleton, both coming in the last 30 seconds pulled the game out of the fire for the Saints. Thompson and Middleton scored 28 and 18 respectively. The Saints' first loss was issued by Westtown on the Westtown court as Middleton's 26 points was not enough.

Despite Thompson's 31 points, the Saints lost number two as they were beaten badly by Howard 84-38, in the first home game of the year. This loss was no upset because Howard was one of the best teams in the state and the Saints' toughest opponent.

The revenge for their earlier defeat came when the Saints smeared Westtown 66-40 as Thompson and Middleton both scored 28 points. The Saints took a 49-27 halftime lead and never let up while Dillon's outstanding defense held down the Westtown score.

Tied for first place in the conference, the Saints took on perennial champion Archmere. The Big Red led throughout the first half, but an injury to Thompson's knee early in the third quarter hindered the Saints' scoring potency and defeat resulted. Thompson was the game's top scorer, despite the injury with 24 points.

With Captain Thompson absent from the line-up, Eric Middleton and Chip Gordy took over and led the Saints to a close decision over Wilmington Friends 58-50. Middleton scored 23 and Gordy 15.

The first Tower Hill game was one of the most disappointing of the year as the Saints met defeat after leading throughout most of the game. Eric Middleton led the scoring with 19 points. St. Elizabeth's proved to be no opposition for S.A.S. even though the 56-48 record appears to be a close game. Middleton took scoring honors with 19 points as Dillon again played an outstanding defensive game.

Wilmington Friends gained revenge on the Saints 55-50 in one of the team's worst games. Captain Thompson, returning to action, scored 22 points to lead all scorers. Before a dance-weekend crowd, the Saints played one of their best games of the year beating a fine Sanford team 75-59. Middleton scoring 25 and Thompson's dribbling were important factors in the victory.

With aspiration of being the only team to beat Archmere, the Saints controlled the game throughout the first half, but a second-half relapse brought defeat. Thompson was high scorer with 22 points.

In their worst game of the season the Saints lost to Baltimore Friends 52-48.

Senior Thompson and Gordy led S.A.S. to a new team record in the last game of the season, as the Saints beat Tower Hill 86-62. Thompson's dramatic half court shot in the last second gave the Saints the record and himself 31 points. Gordy grabbed 25 rebounds and scored 19 points to play his best game of the season.
This year the St. Andrew's Squash team, adroitly coached by Coach Blackburn Hughes, displayed a splendid season tallying six wins and three losses for the first winning squash team in school history. The Red racquet men reversed last year's 3-6 season and show promise of being strong again next year. The most outstanding player on the team was fourth former Gibb Cone, who turned in an excellent 8-1 season and captured the school squash tournament from co-captain and number one player, Rusty Capers. Not one of the Saints seven had a losing season, and co-captains Pyle and Capers turned in 7-2 and 6-3 seasons, respectively.

In the first match of the season, the team downed a strong Hasbrouck Heights team on home courts with Capers, Cone, Pyle, and Mills registering victories.

Four days later the Saints trounced Penn Charter "B" soundly, scoring a 6-1 victory, the first victory ever for the Saints on Penn Charter courts.

The racquet men, with two victories behind them, went to Philadelphia to take on Episcopal Academy's varsity. Although the Saints played well, they were overpowered by the strong Episcopal team which gained a 7-0 victory.

In the following match, the squash players were host to the Hill School J.V. but did not extend their cordiality sending them home with a 7-0 defeat.

Roused and eager for their next match, the team traveled to Annapolis in the hope of scoring their first victory ever over the Plebe "B" team. The Saints dropped this one but not without a fight as they fell before a close 4-3 defeat. Carppers' match might have made the difference had Capers played the first man of the "B" team. The match might have been won, but instead Capers found himself playing against powerful and experienced Steve Abbot, #1 of the Plebe Team. Capers put up a valiant effort but went down in defeat as victories were chalked up by Kane, Snyder, and Hodges, the first victories ever against the Plebes.

The Saints' fourth victory came in an extremely close rematch against Haverford "B" on their courts. Coming from behind (2-4), the Saints men turned the match around and won 4-2 with Snyder and Hunt winning two out of the last three matches, both going five long tense games.

Probably the closest match of the season came when the squash players met Episcopal Academy, this time on home courts and in front of the girls here for the V Form Dance. The Saints fought valiantly, losing 4-5, quite an improvement over the previous 7-0 loss.

The Red ended up the last two games of the season with shut-outs against Hill School J.V. and Penn Charter "B.

With these decisive victories, Mr. Hughes, confident of his team's ability, hopes to advance his team to these schools' varsity teams next year.

J. V. WRESTLING

Although this year's J. V. Wrestling team dropped their first match, they were able to come back and win the remaining eight. Third former Gates led the team by scoring a total of 36 points followed by two fifth formers Day and Ockenden each with 26 points.

The season opened with a loss of 36-12, Rabinowitz, B. Sabloff, Dan Smith, and Paul decisioned. The Saints were not able to score any pins.

The following Saturday, the J. V. edged out an 18-17 victory over the William Penn J. V. Again the team did not score any pins, but M. Sabloff, Turner, Cole, Ockenden, Clover, and Day won decisions.

The next Tuesday the Little Saints swamped the Dover Varsity 44-8, M. Sabloff, H. Smith, Ockenden, Gates, Porter, Clover, and Day all pinned while S. Smith, F. Hoffecker, and Cole decisioned.

With two victories and one defeat the Saints were confident as they faced Middletown's Varsity. Pins were scored by MacSorley, S. Smith, and Porter; while Baldwin, John Pope, Barrett, Gates, and Clover won by decision.

The J. V. winning streak was not broken as the Milford J. V. fell victim to the Little Reds 33-21. At the beginning of the 1451b. class match the Saints were down 8-21, M. Sabloff having pinned and H. Smith decisioned. Then, at 145, Ockenden pinned easily in 42 seconds and was imitated by Gates, Porter, Davis, and Day all of whom pinned.

Travelling to Hun for its sixth match the victory-hungry Saints trounced a 48-3 triunphy. Those who pinned were S. Smith, Turner, Ockenden, Davis and Day. Because some of the Hun men were over-weight B. Sabloff, Cole, F. Hoffecker, and Gates won by default.

The next team to fall to the S.A.S. giant killers was the Wilmington Friends Varsity. S. Smith, B. Sabloff, Cole, Barrett, and Nuttall received decisions while Gates pinned to make the final score 20-5.

Gathering momentum the mighty J. V. roller managed to flatten Penn Charter 25-21. Forfeits were given to Gates and Tomks. M. Sabloff, Cole and Harris, who was making his first appearance on the mats this year for the Saints, all pinned. To end the season in style, the fighting Saints trounced Milford 39-21. In spite of some defeats in the lower weight classes the little warriors pinned the last four men. M. Sabloff, H. Smith, and Ockenden won decisions while the four who pinned were Gates, Davis, Clover, and Day.

The 8-1 by the Little Saints was a decided victory for the J. V. Matmen. Coach Baum commented on this year's team as being one of the strongest St. Andrew's has had. It is one that will undoubtedly supply the varsity with able men in future years.

J. V. BASKETBALL

This year's J. V. Basketball team faced its fourteen game schedule with as optimistic an outlook as could have been expected, after having produced a very poor 1-14 record the year before. The '63 team was almost identical to the J. V. team of '62. Only one member of the starting five had not played J. V. the year before. All these encouraging statistics did not have much effect on the Little Saints because they turned in a 2-12 record at the end of the season.

In their first game the Saints fell victim to Sanford 47-31 on Sanford's home court. The next two teams to better their records via SAS were Morristown and Westtown, 31-21 and 43-36, respectively. Next to conquer the Little Saints was Howard High School, followed in turn by Westtown, Archmere, and Wilmington Friends, by scores of 59-32, 31-21, 60-26, and 46-38, respectively.

The second half of the season brought the Little Saints their only two wins of the season, one being against St. Elizabeth's and the other against Tower Hill. The J. V.'s domi-

The 1962 crew was extremely successful in both dual meets and regatta style competitions. Rowing in eights for all dual meet contests, the Red and White oarsmen compiled a 7-1 log, with the first boat 3-1 and the second boat undefeated at 4-0.

Initiating the season on April 18 against Hun School on the home waters of the Noxontown, the second boaters pulled away from a quarter-length lead at the 3/4 mile flag to win, going away by 1 1/2 lengths in 5:36.6. The first boat, rowing a very strong race and nearly overcoming a length deficit at the 3/4 mark lost their only race of the season by a mere three feet; the time was 5:16.

Rowing again on the home waters against the Princeton University Freshmen the second boat again was victorious, this time by 1 3/4 lengths in 5:32.8. The first boat also won, nipping the hard-pushing Frosh by one foot in 5:22.

The big Green of Bonner was the next fall to the Red and White oarsmen. Catching a crab that stopped their boat at the 1/4 mile mark, the previously undefeated Green second boaters were unable to come back and never threatened the second Saints who won in 5:50. Bonner's first boat also encountered bad luck as they scraped past the 1/2 mile flag and chipped their stroke's oar, allowing the Big Red to win easily by a length in 5:30.

Travelling to Annapolis on April 28 for their first away contest of the season, the Saints found themselves rowing in a shortened version of the regular mile race because of choppy waters. The two resulting victories by the visiting forces were unusual for a St. Andrew's crew vs. Navy. The second boat won in 3:07.5 by two lengths over the floundering Plebes, and the first boat followed suit by soundly turning back their Blue and Gold opponents by over two lengths in 2:39.

Entering the regatta phase of the season, the Cardinal oarsmen sent two fours to the North Virginia Cup races and came home with a first place by the second four and a third by the first.

On May 12, S.A.S. entertained crews from Harrington, Washington and Lee, Lower Merion, and Chestnut Hill. The second eight beat all opponents, winning in 3:26 by two lengths over the nearest rival. The second four then beat Washington and Lee by one foot and the first four went on to win by two lengths, completing the perfect slate for home forces.

Losing eight junior oarsmen, due to College Boards, the crew entered two fours in the Stotesbury Cup Races on May 19. Both entries were second in their races by 3/4's of a length, the junior four losing to Washington and Lee, and the senior one to Bonner.

In the highlight of the season's regattas, the National Schoolboy Championships, St. Andrew's had a fine first day in qualifying all three of its entries, the junior four having the best overall time trial in its competition group. However, in the finals of the next day on May 26, the junior placed third behind Canisius and W. & L. Their time of 5:40.6 was 1.4 seconds better than the best senior four time. In senior fours competition, the S.A.S. entry placed sixth, as did the senior eight.

The 1962 St. Andrew's tennis squad, with a tough schedule and many new faces, came through with an impressive 6-3 record and a co-championship in the Delaware state tournament.

In their first match, with Conrad, the Saints gave a good indication of their ability by handily downing their opponents 9-0. Fishburne, at the number one singles post, playing one of his best matches of the year, came back from a rough first set to win 3-6, 6-2, 6-2. Captain John Pinner and number three man Charlie Heckscher polished off their opponents in two sets, 6-3, 6-2, and 6-4, 6-3 respectively. Then the new boys took over, as Steve Mills, Bill Hammond, and Larry Rockwell all brought in their first victories for S.A.S. in two sets: Mills 6-3, 6-0; Hammond 6-1, 6-2; and Rockwell 6-3, 6-2. In the doubles matches, Fishburne and Pinner, in a very tough match, emerged victorious 5-7, 6-3, 6-3. Heckscher and Mills followed suit 6-2, 6-3, and King and Snyder put the lid on the match 6-4, 6-1.

Four days later, the Saints downed Wicomico 6-3. Things looked bad as all our netters except Mills lost their first set; however, everyone except Pinner came back to win. Rockwell, losing the first set 2-6, behind in the second set 0-4, came back to win, with a tremendous effort, the second set 8-6, and last one 6-2. In the doubles, Heckscher and Mills posted the only victory in two unbalanced sets, 12-10, 6-1.

For their next match, the S.A.S. netters journeyed to Penn Charter, where they met their first defeat 2-4. Hammond and Rockwell in the doubles and in the singles recorded the only wins.

At Gilman for the next match, the Saints lost a tough one 6-3. Fishburne and Hammond posted singles victories, 6-8, 6-2, 6-2, and 6-1, 6-0, respectively, while Hammond and Rockwell brought in the lone doubles win 9-7, 6-1. The Saints, plagued by a broken racquet and the flying feet and smashing serves of Gilman ace Buck-Lew, were at a low ebb.

Four days later, a rejuvenated band of netters took the courts and handily put down Episcopal Academy 6-0. Only one match even lasted three sets.

For their next match, the squad entertained the Hun School and handed them a smashing 8-1 defeat.

Glory was short-lived, however, as the next week, Sidwell Friends turned the tables by handing the team a bitter 8-1 defeat. The team of Heckscher and Mills was the lone victor, 6-3, 6-4.

The next week; the Cardinal netters returned to the winning trail by defeating Chestnut Hill 7-2. All the victors downed their opponents in two sets, while the two losing matches were only conceded after three tough sets.

The Saints put the cap on their fine season with a 7-2 victory over Peddie in the last match. Fishburne won, posting an impressive 7-2 season record, bettered only by Hammond's 6-1 tally in singles competition.

Led by Fishburne and Hammond, the Saints finished off their season by tying for the Delaware State Championship, thus bringing the trophy home to S.A.S. for the third straight year.

Mr. Colburn, in his second year as head baseball coach, led the 1962 Saint Andrew's nine to the School's first winning season since 1951. Under the inspiration of head coach Colburn, able assistant Walker, and co-captains Larry Court and Pete Millichap, the Saints compiled an impressive 8-4 season.

Ace southpaw Larry Court gave the Cardinals their impetus in the opening game at arch-rival Wilmington Friends' field, when he pitched a magnificent no-hit, no-run game, allowing one opponent to reach first base. The Red line-up, led by Court and Millichap and first-year man Sandy Dillon, piled up 18 runs to add insult to injury.

The Saints next travelled to Wyoming, Delaware, where they met and conquered a weak Dover Air Force Base team 18-3. Varsity new-comer Tom Lackey pitched a strong game, allowing only four hits while striking out ten batters. At bat, the Saints went wild, collecting 19 safeties, five for extra bases. Dick Buckaloo got the Redbirds off to a fast start with a lead-off home run. Late in the game Stan Thompson also pitched a brilliant game in a losing cause. Still, the Saints outdid themselves in outhitting and, in general, out-playing a very strong Archmere nine, only to lose the game 3-2 in one extra inning on a fielding mishap.

In the next game, the Saints, sparked by their great playing in the previous game, climbed out of their four-game tailspin by downing a good Westtown Friends team 7-2. Overcoming their obvious weariness, the Saints, led by the pitching of Stan Thompson, outplayed their brownclad opponents and gave their stalwart fans something to cheer about.

This victory over Westtown marked the beginning of a five-game St. Andrew's winning streak, climax by a decisive win over perennial foe Tower Hill. Larry Court outpitched Tower Hill's Jim Krewatch and beat him 6-3. Larry gave up only five hits to Krewatch's ten and collected two hits to Krewatch's none. Late season starter Bunker Hill went 2 for 3 and drove in two runs to match batting performances of co-captains Court and Millichap. With this victory, the Saints gained a feeling of pride and, better yet, a sense of revenge.

In their winning streak, the Saints also chalked up victories over Wilmington Friends, 12-1, via the five-hit pitching of Court and the two hit batting of third baseman Jim Cooper, shortstop Dick Buckaloo, and centerfielder Sandy Dillon; Dover Air Base, 7-2, on another strong pitching effort by Tom Lackey and the 3 for 5 hitting performance by late season starter and promising second baseman Lee Tawes; and, finally, Sanford, on 4-0 shutout pitching by Larry Court. This game was marked by the 3 for 3 performance by Lee Tawes and the hitting of Buckaloo, Millichap, Court, and Hill.

The '62 Saints 4 and 4 record in conference play was good enough to place them third behind Tower Hill and Archmere and ahead of Sanford and Wilmington Friends. They were undefeated out of Conference.

J. V. BASEBALL - 1962

Under the coaching of Messrs. Ogilby and Gammons and the leadership of Captain Warren Hoffecker, the 1962 J.V. Baseball Team posted an impressive 6-3 season.

The opening game against Tatnall gave little indication of the team's potential as the Saints lost 7-4 before a home crowd.

However in the next game at Sanford, the Saints came into their own, beating their hosts 5-4. Sparking the Saint victory was third former Gibb Kane, who was both winning pitcher and leading hitter.

Against Archmere, Kane again was winning pitcher as the visiting green bowed 8-7. Leading the S.A.S. attack were fourth formers Coward and Allen who between them made three hits and scored four runs.

Visiting Phelps, the Saints continued the victories by rolling over their opponents 14-7. Aided by the strong hitting of Baldwin, Burton, and Griswold, Dan Moore pitched his first victory as he collected two hits and scored two runs.

After three victories, the Saints finally lost. The victory was third former Gibb Kane, who was both winning pitcher and leading hitter.

In their next game, the Saints lost 10-3 to visiting Dover to tie the season's record at 3-3.

In their seventh game, the Saints returned to winning as they again hosted Tatnall. Curt Coward switched from catcher to win his first game as a pitcher 4-2.

Visiting Tower Hill, S.A.S. hitting exploded as Coward capped his second victory 18-3. Leading the attack were Gibb Kane with four runs and Dan Moore with 3 hits and 4 RBIs.

In their next game, the Saints finished off their winning season before a home crowd by again beating Sanford 5-4. Coward was the winning pitcher as he gained his third victory with the aid of three runs by Gibb Kane.

After presenting Coward the Most Valuable Player Award and MacNair Most Improved, the J.V. coaches and players looked forward to a successful season in 1963.

CLUB CREW - 1962

The club crew, directed by Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Madison, saw the advent of a new division of the Spring Athletics Squad, directed by Mr. Reyner. In addition to the Acheans and Vikings, the Fifth Form crew of the Athletics program composed a third club.

For the second year in succession, the Acheans were season victors. Under the leadership of stroke Stan Hudson, the Achean eight was victorious over the Vikings and Fifth Formers in that order.

Races were more elaborate than usual, being run in two shifts. In the beginning of the season, the first races consisted of a four with John Schoonover at stroke (the four was given a minute start over the other boats), and the second boat eight-oared shell from the Acheans and Vikings.

In the latter part of the season, races were restricted to a single run of one eight from each club. Rod Ball and John Schoonover became strokes for the Fifth Formers.

Stan Hudson and Jim Boyd led the Acheans as they surpassed the Vikings with Dave Loomis at the head.

J. V. TENNIS - 1962

The J.V. team, with the help of three returning players from the previous year's team and four new boys, experienced one of its best seasons in recent years. The St. Andreans defeated Gilman, the Sanford Varsity, and Brandywine, while losing to Wicomico twice, the Archmere Varsity, and Gilman in a return match to finish with a 3-4 record.

Here are the highlights of some of the matches: in the first match against Wicomico from Salisbury, Md., the little Saints were overpowered by a small, but extremely powerful team. The only victories scored by S.A.S. were from the doubles teams C. Snyder and J. Smith, and Sailer and Rogers. The final score was 7-2 Wicomico.

At home again for the next match the Saints fared much better against Gilman. The Saints overpowered the Gilman team 6-3 with victories from Whitaker, LaGrone, Jon Smith and Rig Baldwin. There were also doubles victories from C. Snyder and Harris, and (by default) Jon Smith and Whitaker.

In the next match, the Saints traveled to Salisbury, Md. where they again lost to the powerful midgets 8-1. The only victory of the day was scored by the doubles team of Sailer and Harris.

For the next match, during Dance Weekend, the Saints were at home against the Sanford Varsity. The Little Red won a close match by a 3-2 score. The victories were accredited to Jon Smith, and the doubles teams of Snyder and Harris, and Sailer and Romaine.
