Same thing everyday
Gettin' up, goin' to school
No use of me complaining
My objection over-ruled
Too much monkey business

Chuck Barry
"I expect to pass
Through this life but Once ... If, therefore, there
Be any kindness I can show,
Or any good thing I can do
To my fellow human beings
Let me do it now. Let me not Defer it, or neglect it,
For I shall not pass
This way again"

Ralf Breger
"These are some other Blessings for which I give thanks: for the ability to identify the variety of all birds by their flight, especially wild fowl and plover, — as far as one can see them; for feeling gloomy after killing wild creatures and for being an "Outside" and not an "Inside" man; for eyes able to see swan so high overhead that their wings are held rigid and they sail to the South without a wing beat — for ears that can distinguish bird sounds and know even the anguished note of a blue goose, driving ahead of the Northeast wind.

L. W. Barroll
Speed is all right, but you got to have bottom. That is, a dog that can fly for a while may do you some good as long as he lasts, but what you really want is a dog with grit, a dog that will fall in there and run a fox all day and all night. You want a dog that will track a fox wherever he goes, in a place so thick you can't walk through it, or in a wide open field. Wherever that fox goes, that dog is supposed to follow him. If you got a dog that will do all that and is broke besides, you got a dog you better hold onto.

Bro Pinkerton
I have not yet reached the horizon.

David Harms
Wayne Herkness
Behold the turtle.
He makes progress
only when he sticks his neck out.

James Bryant Conant
I must go down to the sea again, to the lonely sea and the sky,
And all I ask is a tall ship and a star to steer her by,
And the wheel’s kick and the wind’s and the white sail’s shaking,
And a gray mist on the sea’s face and a grey dawn breaking.

I must go down to the sea again, for the call of the running tide
Is a wild call and a clear call that may not be denied;
And all I ask is a windy day with the white clouds flying,
And the flung spray and the blown spume, and the sea-gulls crying.

I must go down to the seas again to the vagrant gypsy life.
To the gull’s way and the whale’s way where the wind’s like a whetted knife;
And all I ask is a merry yarn from a laughing fellow rover,
And quiet sleep and a sweet dream when the long trip’s over.

John Masefield
"Well, I left my happy home to see what I could find out. I left my folk and friends with the aim to clear my mind out. I hit the rowdy road, and many kinds I met there, many stories told me of the way to get there. So on and on I go, the seconds tick the time out, there is so much left to know, and I'm on the road to find out."

Edgar Wolter
“Goodbye,” said the fox. “And now, here is my secret, a very simple secret: only the heart can see rightly; what is essential is invisible to the eye.”

The Little Prince,
by Antoine de Saint Exupery

Bill Fitler
Ah, the strange life of happiness and woe
That I have led, since my young feet did go
From that grey, peaceful, much-beloved abode,
But now, indeed, will I cast off the load
Of memory of vain hopes that came to nought,
Of rapturous joys with biting sorrows bought.
The past is past, though I cannot forget
Those days, with long life laid before me yet.
Ah, but one moment, ere I turn the page.

William Morris
Zorba the Greek recalling his youth:

Look, one day I had gone to a little village. An old grandfather of ninety was busy planting an almond tree. “What, Grandad!” I exclaimed. “Planting an almond tree?” And he, bent as he was, turned round and said: “My son, I carry on as if I should never die.” I replied: “And I carry on as if I might die any minute.” Which of us was right, boss?

WAR

“He’s got him a medal he won in the war. Weighs five hundred pounds and sleeps by the door.”

James R. McGuinn and Graham Parsons
MR CENSOR MAN!

"Mr. Censor man, don't you tell us what we shouldn't read in this modern age, Scandinavia has got the lead! Change your ways, let the people have what they need.

Mr. Censor man, don't you teach us your morality
If it gives offense — stay away from pornography
You'll never win — it's been around through all of history

We'll be taking out subscriptions to our Screw Magazine.
Mr. Censor Man, don't you call us dirty and unclean
While there's War how can you be calling sex obscene?"
John Bernet

"I woke up this morning, had them Statesboro Blues"

The Allman Brothers Band
Tom Rayner

“Only in Egypt can I do great things.”
Napoleon Bonaparte
"For winning love, we run the risk of losing."
Thomas Hardy

“You have to believe in happiness
Or happiness never comes.”
Douglas Malloch

Brian Scripture
"It is a fact verified and recorded in many histories that the soul capable of the greatest good is also capable of the greatest evil. Who is there more impious than a backsliding priest? Who more carnal than a recent virgin? This, however, may be a matter of appearance."
In the beginning Man created God; and in the image of Man created he him.

And Man gave unto God a multitude of names, that he might be Lord over all the earth when it was suited to Man.

And on the seven millionth day Man rested and did lean heavily on his God and saw that it was good.

And Man became the God that he had created and with his miracles did rule over all the earth.

But as all these things did come to pass, the Spirit that did cause men to create his God lived on within all men.

And man saw it not.

But for Christ's sake he'd better start looking.

Ian Anderson
I have my freedom
I can make my own rules, the ones that I choose Lord my body's been a good friend
I won't need it when I reach the end.

Cat Stevens Fishing for my Bait

It was a mere nothing — hardly something worth worrying about,
I doubt.
I saw him squirm —
slimy little worm,
and wanted to capture,
but oh my rapture —
when he escaped,
and I lost my bait.

Rick Swenson
Try to realize it's all within yourself. No one else can make you change and to see you're really only very small and life flows on within you and without you.

George Harrison

Tony Colbert
Bob Lightburn

"I wish for you, my friend,
this happiness that I've found —
You can depend on Him
it matters not where you're bound —
I'll shout it from the mountain-top,
I want my world to know:
The Lord of love has come to me,
I want to pass it on."
My Lady of the Garden

My Lady's eyes shine to tell of the day,
Of whirling white sky pools and sun glaring blaze,
Of flower lillied carpets on soft grounds array,
Of trees that wave slowly, in my lady's gaze

She runs an easy garden life
Of floating skirts down paths.
Such a young exquisite wife,
While she glides, she smiles, and laughs.

I'd be there now and chase her down
The trails till we laugh and fell,

But my legs are lame and bandage-wound.
This pain is earthly hell!

I must now set my lady free
Of an ogre that lives in a chair.
I know she'll cry but then she'll see,
That I can't tie her down with my care.

My Love so strong will live on past death.
I stare at the gun, yet know what must be,
Quick pain dims away as I ebb my last breath,
So my lady will always be free.

C.F.M.
All that is gold does not glitter,
Not all those who wander are lost;
The old that is strong does not wither,
Deep roots are not reached by the frost.
From the ashes a fire shall be woken,
A light from the shadows shall spring;
Renewed shall be blade that was broken,
The crownless again shall be King.

J.R.R. Tolkien
the greedy the people (as if as can yes)
they sell and they buy and they die for because though the bell in the steeple says Why

the chary the wary (as all as can each) they don’t and they do and they turn to a which though the moon in her glory says Who

the busy the millions (as you’re as can i’m) they flock and they flee through a thunder of seem though the stars in their silence say Be the cunning the craven (as think as can feel) they when and they how and live for until though the sun in his heaven says Now

the timid the tender (as doubt as can trust) they work and they pray and they bow to a must though the earth in her splendor says May

e. e. cummings

Mike O’Connor
“Been on the road too long
Most of these changes should be past and gone
Clarify my position
Must be some kind of fool
I'm a musician
   I got nothin' to do but today
Already on my way
Goodbye, I can't stop to say just quietly slip away
Lose myself it's the only way
   I got nothin' to do but today
You think I am not myself
You're confusing me with somebody else
I am not so easy to deceive
I am a blues man, I know when to leave
   I got nothin' to do but today”
"You've gone to the finest school, alright Mr. Lonely, but you know you only used to get juiced in it. Nobody's ever taught you how to live out on the street, and now you're gonna have to get used to it."

B. Dylan

"If dogs run free, then why not we?"

B. Dylan
“A sum of money is a leading character in this tale about people, just as a sum of honey might properly be a leading character in a tale about bees.”

— Kurt Vonnegut Jr.
“God Bless You, Mr. Rosewater”

“In a hierarchy, every employee tends to rise to his level of incompetence.”

— Dr. Laurence J. Peter
“The Peter Principle”
"Courage — the greatest of the virtues, upon which all others depend."

"All it takes for evil to triumph is for enough good men to do nothing."
Learning is acquired by reading books; but the much more necessary learning, the knowledge of the world, is only to be acquired by reading men, and studying all the various editions of them.

Lord Chesterfield
I-I-I can't believe it! I just can't believe it!

Robert M. Colburn
"A whole army of Polygons, who turned out to fight as private soldiers, was utterly annihilated by a superior force of Isosceles Triangles — the Squares and Pentagons meanwhile remaining neutral. Worse than all, some of the ablest Circles fell a prey to conjugal fury. Infuriated by political animosity, the wives in many a noble household wearied their lords with prayers to give up their opposition to the Colour Bill; and some, finding their entreaties fruitless, fell on and slaughtered their innocent children and husband, perishing themselves in the act of carnage. It is recorded that during the triennial agitation no less than twenty three Circles perished in domestic discord."

R. Christian Millar
We've got to get out of this place,
If it's the last thing we ever do,
We've got to get out of this place,
Oh, there's a better life for me and you.

Eric Burdon
