This Yearbook is respectfully dedicated to Mr. Robert A. Moss, who for eighteen years, has tried to lead our school in the ways of excellence. His willingness to listen and sympathize, his efforts to show us the exciting realities of both the life of the mind and the life of Christ, and his energetic devotion to bringing out in every teacher and every student the best we have in order that this community might be a place in which "all good learning flourish and abound"--for these things, we shall always be grateful. Our great thanks should also go to Mrs. Moss, who, for so many years, has given her love and dedication to St. Andrew's. Bob and Huldah leave us with our love, our best wishes, and our deep appreciation.

--Hugh Prather

Well what did they think that I went there to do?
And why should I want to be bad at the zoo?
And should I be likely to say if I had?
So that's why it's funny of mommy and dad
This asking and asking in case I was bad.
"Well?"
"Have you been a good girl?"

INTRAMURALS

SPAZ-FALL TERM

This page is dedicated to those persons seeking that one elusive goal—physical fitness. Under the martial leadership of Col. Liefeld, the shining example of Mr. Lange, and the gutsy stick-to of Monsieur Cheban, this group has blossomed from a motley group of quasi-athletes to the fine athletic specimens seen in these pictures. They should be proud of their achievement!
