The Class of 1978 has really begun to make its mark on the world and the marks that it left on St. Andrew's ten years ago are just now healing over. Niall Flaherty is modeling bathrobes at an exclusive tea room. Jeff Chase has permission to keep his mustache now. Rick Costello is still looking for margarine, and our on-the-campus radical is head baker at the Kremlin. Thanks to his great Spanish, Axel Amaya is now head of the kitchen at St. Andrew's. Alison Rizzo has just misplaced her youngest son; if found, please return to the owner. Lynn Ferris is still trying to make Phi Beta Kappa and Mr. Durn is still listening to her stereo. We have not been able to contact Big Boyle because she is still on the phone now have we been able to contact Molly Brogan because she is still answering the window.

Eugene has a new movie coming out, "Son of Eugene." When last seen, Skelly was waterskiing behind a Texas tanker headed toward the Atlantic; this was reported by Ashton Richards who was rowing back from the Henley Regatta. Sarah Hubbell is head of Foster's Yearbook Company and Jamie Wendt is publisher of the New York Times. Richard Cookey and Steve Flaherty have gone chawin' and hunting. Tom Sewell now has a 'harem of stewardesses on his Lear jet. Andreas Hecks is now teaching the German version of U.S. history and Bill Nott has finally proven that a variable is equal to a fish sandwich.

For a good time - call
Martha Scherer 555-1010!

Phillipa Hunt's latest sculpture is now on display at the Louvre. Wendy Shamatta is still getting the crumbs out of her rug and Don Ferruli's voice can still be heard echoing through the foyer of the girls' dorm. Francie Stewart is the manager of the Big T-Burger Restaurant in Middletown and John Mur is the head chef. Kevin Neelingar is the lead singer for the Bee Gees. Ellen O'Shaughnessor is still the good Catholic girl she always was and Alison Pelle isn't. Cathy Shields, age 30, just beat Chris Evert, age 50, at Wimbledon and Peter Logan just put a football in orbit around Mars. Gay Romney is a fashion designer and the new fact that she created is the too tight pony tail. Aubrey Smoot can be found still asleep and the world is still "bumping" on John Springer's head.

The latest bulletin: Paul Kees was just seen running off the edge of the earth.

Danny Rucer is now in a Pragmire of none existence and Tom Sch外表er was last sighted stumbling toward the Holy Sanctuary known as the "Shack." Bobby Fry is resident mathematician at the Middleport Community Conservatory of Music. On Mike Welsh's little League football team, the guards can still be seen running the ends without blocking anyone and Amy Welsh serves as the team's loungewear and seamstress. Greg Tonion was just voted one of the top ten Best Dressed Men of our time. Dr. Habibid just completed the creation of her own personal bionic man. Brenny Thompson just breed a new species of frog called the BLT:

Try the new Corneyrette, not just an ordinary cigarette. It has the lowest tar and nicotine possible - none!

Pat Dervold is now a gospel singer with Billy Graham and Hamson law plays the clarinet for Lawrence Welk. Bepky has disproved Einstein's Theory. Lisa Olson was last seen talking Spanish to Pedro in Cairo. Louisa Humphill has become a professional housewife and has written a book entitled "The Growth and Development of Pumpkins." David Lawson can be seen on the wide world of sports next Saturday in the surfing competition.
Ron Weisselinck is the star of a new motion picture "The All-American Boy." Bill White can still be seen playing tennis, except now, he is serving out of the hole he has worn in the court. The lights went out on Anne Rhodes in her first performance as she shattered the crystal chandeliers. Melissa Maybee may be performing on Broadway or she could be entertaining at the Go-Go Girls Grill. Jason Rochehton won a medal in the Olympics setting the world record in the 100-yard dash on his hands.
Scott Peters was last seen roller skating to work and Rob Linnenkohl is being chased by a rhinoceros he was attempting to film. Towny just finished your senior pictures-come and get them.

Like every Delaware Trust bank, we reflect the atmosphere of the community we serve. From a rural farming area, Middletown has grown both commercially and industrially during the past years... and we’ve grown with the town. Although folks here enjoy a more leisurely living pace, when it comes to banking they want service, and they want it fast! That’s why we offer the same range of banking services as our city cousins—including 24-Hour Banking. That’s good for us, but it’s especially...

Your Truly Successful Trip Starts At The TRAVEL DEPARTMENT-BANK OF DELAWARE

You enjoy many other advantages. It costs no more than if you went directly to the carrier or the hotel. You do not need to be a Bank of Delaware customer to use this service. And, you are always welcome to use your Bank-Americard. We cordially invite your travel arrangements through us.

GUYS AND DOLLS
The Class of 1978 has really begun to make its mark on the world and the marks that it left on St. Andrew's ten years ago are just now healing over. Harold Flaherty is modeling bathrooms at an exclusive tea room. Jeff Chase has permission to keep his mustache now, Rick Costello is still looking for margarine, and our on-the-campus radical is head baker at the Kremlin. Thanks to his great Spanish, Abel Amaya is now head of the kitchen at St. Andrew's. Alison Ross has just misplaced her youngest son; if found, please return to the owner. Lynn Ferris is still trying to make Phi Beta Kappa and Mr. Dunn is still listening to her stereo. We have not been able to contact Big Boyle because she is still on the phone now have we been able to contact Molly Brogan because she is still answering the window.

Egore has a new movie coming out, "Son of Egore". When last seen, Skelly was waterskiing behind a Texaco tanker headed toward the Atlantic, this was reported by Ashton Richards who was rowing back from the Henley Regatta. Sarah Hubbell is head of Josten's Yearbook Company and Jamie Wendt is publisher of the New York Times. Richard Cookerly and Steve Flaherty have gone chauvin and hunting. Tom Sewell now has a house of stewardesses on his Bear Jet. Andreas Heck is now teaching the German version of M.S. history and Bill Mott has finally proven that a variable is equal to a fish sandwich.

For a good time - call
Martha Scherer 555-1010!

Phillipa Hunt's latest sculpture is now on display at the Louvre. Wendy Sharonette is still getting the crumbs out of her rug and Dan Ferruli's voice can still be heard echoing through the foyer of the girls' dorm. Francis Stewart is the manager of the Big-T Burger Restaurant in Middletown and John Muhle is the head chef. Kevin Neuringer is the lead singer for the Bee Gees. Ellen O' Shaughnessy is still the good Catholic girl she always was and Alison Pelt is not. Cathy Shields, age 30, just beat Chris Evert, age 50, at Wimbledon and Peter Logan just put a football in orbit around Mars. Gay Kenney is a fashion designer and the new fact that she created is
the too tight pony tail. Aubrey Smoot can be found still asleep
and the world is still "bumping" on John Springer’s head.

The latest bulletin: Paul Kness was just seen running off the edge of the earth.

Danny Myers is now in a Quagmire of non-existence and Tom Scheffler was last sighted stumbling toward the Holy Sanctuary known as the "Shack". Bobby Fry is resident mathematician at the Middletown Community Conservatory of Music. On Mike Welsh’s little league football team, the guards can still be seen rounding the ends without blocking anyone and Amy Welsh serves as the team’s laundress and seamstress. Sheg Tonian was just voted one of the Top Ten Best Dressed Men of our time. Dr. Halsted just completed the creation of her own personal bionic man. Brenny Thompson just bred a new species of frog called the BLT.

Try the new Corneyrette, not just an
tar and nicotine possible — none!

Pat Dewart is now a gospel singer with Billy Graham and Hanna law plays the clarinet for Lawrence Welks. Becky has disproved Einstein’s Theory. Lisa Olson was last seen talking Spanish to Pedro in Cairo, Louisa Hemphill has become a professional housewife and has written a book entitled "The Growth and Development of Punkins." David Lawton can be seen on the wide world of sports next Saturday in the surfing competition.
Ron Looiswink is the star of a new motion picture "The All-American Boy." Bill White can still be seen playing tennis, except
lights went out on Anne Rhodes in her first performance as she shattered the crystal chandeliers. Melissa Maybey may be performing on Broadway or she could be entertaining at the Go-Go Girls Grill. Jason Rechtow won a medal in the Olympics setting the world record in the 100-yard dash on his hands.
Scott Peters was last seen roller skating to work and Rob Linnonkohl is being chased by a chimp whose he was attempting to film. Toury just finished your senior pictures — come and get them.

The above may be correct,
Bob Colburn — advisor
