For his hours spent in the college counselor's office taking care of nervous seniors with his sour balls; for his endless supply of ice-cream; for the time he spends coaching, teaching and directing; and, most importantly, for his support and the smile that instantly makes you feel better — the senior class of 1982 dedicates this yearbook to Hoover C. We do something dumb, completely ridiculous, we laugh hysterically for 20 minutes. People who are not included involved think we are crazy, immature, obnoxious. It's hard for them to understand the fun we have when we're with each other because they're our own games our own group. We are good support for each other.

"The Road goes ever on and on
Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
Pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way
Where many paths and errands meet.
And whither then? I cannot say.

Still round the corner there may wait
A new road or a secret gate:
And though I oft have passed them by,
A day will come at last when I
Shall take the hidden paths that run
West of the Moon, East of the Sun."

Have you heard of a rime
That will help us get it together, again?

Have you heard of the word
That will stop us going wrong?

Well the time is near
And the word you hear
When you get things in perspective
Spread the news
And tell the world around.

There's a rime
And the time is now
And it's right for me
It's right for me
And the time is now.

There's a word
And the word is love
And it's right for me
And the world is love

Lord, make us instruments of your peace, where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is sadness, joy; Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console; to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. The speculative mind of man moves forward on great revolutions, like a point on the rim of a turning wheel, and if now the point is forward, it cannot remain so for long because the wheel, and the cart which it carries, must move ahead, and as they do so the point on the rim moves backward. This oscillating movement whose temporary position we can readily discern, is what we call the process of civilization. -J. Michener

"It is not the critic who counts, not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly, who errs and comes short again and again; who knows the great enthusiasms the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause; who at best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement; and who, at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat."

To laugh often and to love much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the approbation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to give one's self; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition; to have played and laughed with enthusiasm and sung with exultation; to know even one life has been easier because you have lived — this is to have succeeded.

"I took off for a weekend last month,
just to recall the whole year.
All of the faces and all of the places-
I wondered where they all disappeared.

If it were suddenly ended tomorrow,
I could somehow adjust to the fall.
Good times and riches, and son of a bitches,
I've seen more than I can recall.

So many nights I dream of the ocean,
Visions of good times
That brought me so much pleasure
Makes me want to go there again.

Oh the yesterdays are over my shoulder,
So I can't look back for too long.
There's just too much to see
Wearing infrared of me,
I know I just can't go wrong.

With these changes in latitudes, changes in attitudes
Nothing remains quite the same
With all of my running and all of my cunning.

September 1977 - for the first time, the new members of the Class of 1982 gathered together under these hallowed halls. Our form consisted of twelve boys (P. Eichler, J. Doswell, R. Taylor, D. Colburn, H. Davis, J. Warner, T. E. Bemis, E. Blair, H. Dixon, E. Bailey, O'Shaughnessy, and P. Durnham) and one girl (L. Veosco). The new students, but as alumni. Who can fault us? after all, we're seniors!!

It was the beginning of the end - college had its largest membership ever. The first term went well under the Class of '82, and a third of our final year passed smoothly. Thanksgiving vacation arrived, and with it a much needed break (for faculty as well as students)!

The short time between the end of November and Christmas was a very relaxing time for many (thanks for all the help, Hoover!). Many applied early decision, and many got in - Eichler (Washington College), Lilley (Williams), Yeorman (U. Virgin, Chase (Middlebury), Groves (Dartmouth), Velaos (Hollins), Coburn (Haverford), and Johnson (Bowdoin).

Athletics, under the leadership of the seniors, showed continued improvement. A new attitude was obvious on the football team, and though two of the more experienced men missed time with injuries, the team struggled on under the dogged leadership of Downing. Cross-country had a rough year, but senior and captain Florence stood out, with considerable success against the opposition. Volleyball, led by captains Rada and Yearman, and a respectable season. The hockey team enjoyed the experience of its numerous seniors: captain Mason Kuehlwein, Velasco, Chase, and Ryan all finished the year with a solid record. Girls' cross-country also had a trying season; the young squad, with Wore and an injured Ils, persevered and showed constant improvement. The athlete, highlight of the year was the varsity soccer team, under captain Tarburron and Marrhinsen, and with Beach in the nets, the Saints won the conference title decisively. The team then went on to the State Tournament: first Caesar Rodney, then William Penn, and finally Concord, fell to the "animals" as they won the first state soccer championship in the school's history.

January 1982 - our year of graduation has finally come. As the students of the Arts, Jamet had become a maestro in the theater, and the choir had its largest membership ever. The first term went well under the Class of '82, and a third of our final year passed smoothly. Thanksgiving vacation arrived, and with it a much needed break (for faculty as well as students)!

The 1981 season was the first for "Bug" Roach as the coach of the Boys Varsity Soccer team. The team finished its season in the only way it knew how: by winning the State Soccer Tournament. It was in this game that all the hard work, and expectations of the year were finally realized. All the sacrifice, all the training, and all the effort had paid off.

The team was led by Mr. Roach and Mr. Speers. We had to be the best in order to win. And we were. The question is... Where else to go? Just that far... as the great teams... with two great coaches... and most of all... to a great group of people who gave everything they could in order to win.
This year's J.V. Soccer team had an outstanding season, capped by the end of season victories over Westtown and Archmere, which revenged the team's only previous losses. A strong defense led by Phil Smith, Van Smith, Hugo Smith and Brent Geissinger was the backbone of the team's success, and while the offense had a couple of high scoring efforts, its inability to score consistently was the cause of numerous grey hairs for the coaches Mr. Pruden and Mr. van Buchem. Overall it was a successful season with a good combination of talent and spirit, yielding a fine 10-2-2 record.
This year’s varsity football team finished with a 2-6 record. We started the year with shutouts against Monroeville Beard and West Nottingham. Although we did finish with only these two wins we had some great moments.

We started our game against Friends with a touchdown in the first two minutes of play, the result of a blocked punt. We also played a tough game against Tannall. Some big factors in our record were the losses of Jeff Liley, Keith Cavanaugh and Woody Cullen. The one thing going for us this year was the hard work the coaches and we put into the program. Every week we would go out doing whatever was possible to prepare for the upcoming game and we were always ready to give whatever we could.

This year can be considered a building year for S.A.S. Football. We thank those of you who stuck with us during the whole season. With a lot of faith and a few new players St. Andrew’s Football will be a force to be reckoned with in the years to come.

This season gave us at least the chance to be really brave. The roster included many new students, some of whom had never played football before. Fortunately we had a fine core left over from last year: Mike Zimmer carried out his duties in the "pocket", Skip Middleton and Jim Cucuzella ran the ball hard, and Eric Twombly showed dogged determination. Of the new students, Ted Amoya and Philip Njera helped the team with their support and sprit when we really needed it. In fact, after the disheartening loss to Friends everyone began to buckle down. We managed to contain the opponents in some cases to a lead of just a few points.

The J.V. Football team did not win any of its five games, but this is deceptive. The potential of our young squad could be seen, for example, in the varsity game with Tower Hill, where much of the J.V. team substituted in the fourth quarter and claimed 16 points before the game ended. Admittedly, touchdowns for the 1981 J.V. Football team were hard to come by, but Robert Thomas indeed did it, when he suddenly broke loose against Archmere for an 80 yd. touchdown run!

Year of Accomplishments

The 1981 field hockey season proved to be a fall packed with accomplishments. The record displays a year of inconsistency: 6-6-2. However, what the record fails to reveal is the dedication and commitment the team put forth and how this paid off. The Friends and Tonnal games are examples of the team's ability to fight to the last second. The scores may not have been in favor for S.A.S., but the Quakers and Hornets realize how much extra preparation will be necessary for their next game against the skilled red powerhouse.

The Saints revenged ties in their second meeting against Sanford and St. Mark's. The St. Mark's game was probably the game in which we played our best. Fancy stickwork and teamwork were too much for the team that had always beaten the Saints. I personally will never forget the sense of accomplishment we felt that afternoon.

Finally in our second-to-last game we scored on the undefeated, unscored upon team from Tower Hill. So the season ended on an upnote. Next year's team will be without seniors Lisa Velasco, Jennifer Burgin, Shannon Kuehlwein, Decca Bailey, Jill Chase, Mary O'Shaughnessy, and Holly Mason, but we wish the team the best of luck and thank coaches Tong and Roach for all their time and effort.

The 1981 J.V. Hockey team was one full of spirit and determination which is revealed by our winning season, with the help of Miss Nowicki and Meggan O’Brien we learned to work together as a team. Despite many injuries throughout the season the team stuck together. The team is a young one with a lot of potential which will be a great aid to the up coming varsity teams.

The 1981 Day's Cross Country had a disappointing record but it was a season of growth. The only senior on the team was Andy Florence leaving the bulk of the squad to third and fourth formers. The season began by running to gain the endurance so badly needed to be a long distance runner. Then as the season went on, time was the main objective. Each race became a chance to shatter one's previous time. The team is looking forward to next year's season and a chance to win back some of the losses.
WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

The Girl's Cross Country won their first race. After only three years of having a girl's team this is a great accomplishment. Although Caesar Rodney was their only win the girls still had a great time. Mr. Zeigler had his hands full. Arraminra Ware was voted most valuable and indeed she was. She was always at the head of the pack. The team participated in the first ever Girl's Cross Country Tournament. The team showed a lot of improvement and is looking forward to a good season next year.
VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

How could I begin to describe to you all about this year's varsity volleyball season when I've been told to make it short? Well, very briefly, I can say we compiled the best record of any varsity volleyball team in the history of the school: 9-6. We played as a team with spirit and class. Our captains were Cyndie Yeatman and Gretchen Rada, who both did an excellent job and contributed immensely, each in their own way. We had our ups and downs like any team and we had our fun. I could go on to name all of the players, but they're on the picture, or I could thank the coaches... but I think they know how we feel, so instead I'd rather reflect on some lasting memories created this season.

Ha, ha-ha-ha... Tubs and Twinkles let's kick... 30 by 30 by 30... leadership!... swivel those hips... hustle together... that's my roommate!... Sportscraft across her face... jelligirls!... 4-2, 6-2 what?... Rustler's... lasagna... who's got a box?... disco warm ups... playing the guys... the Larry glare... sacrifice your bod... commitment... bend your knees... 110%... who's gonna call the toss?... the daring Sanford girls... and hundreds more.

If you didn't understand these jokes, then you obviously weren't part of the 1981 varsity volleyball team, so don't worry. But you did miss out on a great group of girls and a very memorable season.

Cyndie Yeatman
Girl's J.V. Volleyball

The J.V. volleyball team had a good season and a lot of fun to go with it. There were eight girls on the team and of course Mrs. Van Duchem their coach. The high point of the season came when the team went to battle Temple County Christian. After the smoke cleared the Saint's were victorious. Thus the team proved to be a solid group — 10-5 record. Mr. Walker will surely be looking their way to help make up the varsity team next year.

MEN'S VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1982 Varsity Basketball team finished its season with an overall record of 9 and 7. The team, with a 6 and 4 conference record, ended the year in second place in the conference. The Independent Conference was much stronger than in previous years, and this partially explains the drop from last season's 8 and 2 record. The biggest win of the year came against a much improved Sanford team: in this contest, the Saints hung on to tie the game at the end of regulation time, and then went on to win the intense battle in overtime, 64 - 62. An unfortunate 39 - 37 loss to Tower Hill in the final game of the year prevented the team from gaining a share of the conference title.

The J.V. started this year with a new coach and several new players to go along with the "old guard" players. Although the team had some friction, Coach Pergolizzi kept us together by letting everyone play. There were several games this season which gave everyone a case of high anxiety. The first one was a home game against Tarnall in which the team tried to gain the lead many times but couldn’t pull it out. Finally, with the clock ticking down to the last seconds and the Saints behind by one, Andrew "Sky High" Oliphant picked up a loose ball and put up an off-balance, well aimed shot to win it or the buzzer 35-34. Another close game was away at Tome which, unfortunately, we were not destined to win. Behind by 17 with a quarter to play and nothing to lose, the J.V. adopted a "let it all hang out" defense, which later became known as the "bonzo press", and scored 23 points in the final quarter only to lose by 3 points. After this game we went on a roll and won most of our remaining games. The season was as successful as it was because of the tough players who never gave up. Special mention has to be given to Dan "Truck" Garrison, John "Laid Back" Duda, and Brent "The Gun" Geissinger.

Although this year's wrestling team did not match up to the Conference Champions of last year, we compiled a winning record of 7-5. Injuries hampered the team in its effort to repeat as Conference Champions.

The loss of Co-Captains Andy Seymour and Bob Torburton who had a combined dual meet record of 21-1 will be felt by next year's team, but returning letterman Denis Monsoory, Peter Lepley, Chuck Kunz, Leo Kaouris, Jay Cogswell and Mike Loessner provide a wide and solid base for '82-'83. In addition, there will be help coming from some J.V. wrestlers, many of whom gained important Varsity experience this year. With this, the future of St. Andrew's wrestling under the coaches Ziegler, Dunn, and newcomer Howard Fraker looks bright.

The J.V. Wrestling team had a good season. The best meet was with Archmere. In this match we managed to win three out of five bouts. The overall season was quite productive; we had three wins and two losses with many rookies who learned the skills quickly and gained confidence as the season progressed. These students will prove to be very valuable in the future. We thank our coach, Mr. Dunn, for his help and support.

This season the team finished with a record similar to years past. We only won one match. Winning one match, however, does not reflect the talent this team had or how much fun we had playing. We had a new female coach, but this was no drawback. Miss Tong showed us new shots and told us how we could perfect our old ones. She was always full of spirit and we never failed to have a good time on road trips because of her fun loving nature. Next year's team will be missing some good players, Capt. Ned Groves, Jay Smith, Foster Blair, and John Schwab. But I have no doubt that next year's team will be just as great with players such as Andrew Liefeld, Paul Keeley, and Dier Von Uff returning.

J.V. Men's Squash

As a rule JV Squash has always suffered at the hands of its enemies. The limited court time and manpower have usually put the other much larger schools at a heavy advantage. Up until this year our team has generally been unable to overcome these odds and experience a winning season. Not this year.

Combined with the mild-mannered coaching of Mr. Wheelock and the devastating players which made up our team, our rivals fell to their knees. Our first victory came at Episcopal Academy where we won 4-2. At Penn Charter we came home after an easy 5-2 victory. During our season we met only one defeat, against Hill School. Had the courts been above sub-zero temperatures, some of the members of our team success continued on through the Delaware State Championships. Eddie Collins won the 14-and-under division and Matt Herndon got into the 18-and-under consolations. With the departure of many Seniors in the Squash program, the JV victors may soon become the Varsity victors. Good Luck!!!

The 1981-82 squash team passed through this season with many discouraging moments, a few untimely accidents, and a couple of battered racket cases, but still managed to emerge with an all-around impressive season and some decisive victories at the Delaware State Junior Squash Tournament.

The team, consisting of seniors Marylou Francisco, winner of the 18-under division, Cyndie Yearman, Holly Mason, fifth formers Amy Dunnham, and Katie Magill, winner of the 16-under division, and fourth formers Stephanie Jones and Lou O'Brien, showed the talent, enthusiasm, and sportsmanship characteristic of girls' squash under the fearless leadership of Coach Speers. Germantown Friends and Mercersburg were our team victories, losing only to Shipley. Yet individually, the personal triumphs were many. Given a team without any "stars", the matches between team members were often more competitive than the outside competition, but it was never enough to destroy the team morale. Getting psyched for matches was one of our greatest worries. The disco squash warm-ups impressed the spectators but remained hidden from our unsuspecting opponents.

Special thanks go to Mr. Speers for his nightly squash extravaganzas, for his support and enthusiasm, and more importantly for his personal commitment. Thanks Wilbur. You've done it again.

St. Andrew's women's J.V. squash team had a fine season, although we only played three games, of which two were against Tower Hill. The first time we beat them 7 to 0 and the next time 3 to 1. The girls on the team have a great deal of potential and enthusiasm. There are some promising players for next year. We thank our coach, Mr. Speers, for all the support he has given us.

The Girls Varsity Basketball team had one of its best seasons in recent memory. We owe all of this to our super-incredible coach Mr. Pruden, who was there every second of the way with his coaching, inspiration, and patience. We won 5 games — more than the last 2 years combined — and achieved a .500 record at home. After a slow start we got our first win by gaining revenge against Tatnall and we later won 3 in a row. It was a season that was marked by a very special team spirit, and one which saw tremendous individual and team improvement. With no seniors on the squad we can look forward to next year and a real chance at the conference championship. For now we can look back on a season filled with memories . . . "pregnant" practices . . . Chinese Firecricks . . . stranded at Seaford . . . Caroline Defense . . . blockade . . . Alfried and Harold . . . divine inspiration . . . happy meal . . . identity crises . . . no hands . . . T.S . . . Party . . . Double Dutch Bus . . . large pizzas . . . and lots and lots of laughter.

As a young and totally inexperienced team, J.V. Girl's Basketball had a difficult season — statistically, that is. As the season progressed, every girl improved significantly. Not only did Stacey Williams stop fouling out, she also started making unbelievable moves inside and rebounded consistently. Erica Streton and Laura Loessner perfected their outside shot, while Jennifer Cogswell played aggressive defense. Dairy Morgan delighted in her “Cavanaugh” shot from the outside, and Kathy Dunton always came through under pressure. Heather Morrow and Anne Gammons were forced to become much needed moral supporters mid-season. The team was captained and led by Kathy Hart and her devastating drives. Mrs. Roach and assistant Miss Streton tried to coach this crazy team, while our spirit, Treava Milton, inspired the team with enthusiasm.
