SPORTS . . .
FALL
Soccer

This year's soccer team set five school records: we let in only six goals, the fewest let in by any SAS soccer team; we had the longest undefeated streak (25 games since October 1981); we had the most shutouts in one season (10); We had the first undefeated soccer team at St. Andrew's; and most importantly, we were the most vicious, pernicious, tenacious group of sickanimals that ever sprinted a moose, spoiled a cheery homecoming, or chanted its scornful hunting cry of S.S. (M.D.). We were not complacent or nice, as Wilmington can attest; another one bites the dust of the magic bus as it careens away. Our teams' frenzied spirit was matched only by the abilities of our more-than-coaches Roach and Speers, and the beast-soothing powers of manager Plummy Tucker.
Football

This year's football team was unlike any other. We produced a sense of spirit and pride which endured the highs and lows of the season. No matter what the outcomes of the games were, we never accepted the thought of giving up, and our determination to do better only increased as time went on. Despite our strength in dealing with the loses, it was, of course, our victories which were the great moments of happiness and pride, and the ones that make football what it is.

Girls X Country

The 1982 Women's X Country team had a phenomenal season. Finishing with a 5-6 record, they managed to conquer both Westown and Archmere in dual meet competition. Lead by Co-Captains Ann O'Shaugnessy and Boo Percy, the team improved immensely through the infamous 'stair workouts' and 8 mile runs. The highlight of this year's season was placing 5th out of 15 schools in the State Meet. There the Saints emerged victorious over both St. Elizabeth's and St. Mark's who had defeated them earlier in the season. The two captains were awarded 'most outstanding contribution', while C.C. Steele was awarded 'most outstanding runner'. By far this was best season in the team's four year history, and next year anticipates even greater success.
The 1982 Cross Country season was one to remember, from the all-too-soon camp to the step-loops. We will remember our new coach, Don Cameron, who led us to a 4-7 record and who worked us hard because he cared. His 'Virginia lie-downs' and 'Pranky nice-guys' were original exercises which made the year pleasant. Especially, we will remember the race against Tower Hill on Parent's weekend. We tied and then we won on the tie-breaker. In the words of our coach: "Way to go men!"
Field Hockey

The 1982 field hockey season was highlighted by commitment, hard work, and at times, frustration. Our 5-6-2 record doesn't show the potential that this team had from the beginnings of the season. We were plagued with the problem of simply not getting the "ball in the box." Frustration grew as we outplayed our opponents while the scoreboard didn't show it.

The turning point of our season came in the 2nd St. Mark's game, when we scored 3 goals in 4 minutes, but the highlight came in a 1-1 tie against Tatnall, the only team to beat the state champs. The bees were the first to be shown how powerful we really were. Next year's team will be without seniors Katie Magill, Amy Burnham, and Caroline Rumsey on the line, Jean Woodward, Marnie Stetson, Denise Collins, and Lori Velasco on defense, and Jean Fite in the goal. Best of Luck!

This year has indeed been an active one for the chapel organizations. The vestry was responsible for the money collected at Sunday chapel, plus some raised at different events throughout the school year. These events included the annual vestry auction and the initiation of weekly vegetarian meals. As in the past, we supplied Naw-Noo, a young Thai girl, with food, clothing, and education. With increased collections in chapel this year, we were also able to sponsor a much needed irrigation project in a Togo community, and make a sizable donation to St. Vincent’s School for handicapped children in Port au Prince, Haiti.

The Acolytes this year, under the direction of head-acolyte Bret VonUrff, have had one of the largest turnouts in a long time. They have faithfully carried flags, banners, tapers, etc. at our weekly services. The lectors have eloquently delivered the word of God to us through the readings, with the help of their advisor, Mr. Ogilby. The monitors, with head Tom Robinson, acted as sidepersons and ushers at our services, as well as keeping underformers in control. Finally: the Sacristans. This group of hardworking individuals, unlike the other three, was always behind the scenes. They prepared the chapel for Communion services, cleaned the silver after, set out numbers on the hymn-boards, kept the brass shiny, and more. We all owe the Sacristans, headed by Boo Percy, and all the members of the chapel organizations a debt of gratitude for what they have done.

It is in making ourselves most vulnerable that we escape it completely. The acceptance of pain without question of guilt or righteousness is the human part of the human condition and the barrier between man and his vision of God.

Do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with god whatever you conceive it to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham and drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.

Gentlemen we shall soon part. Soon I shall leave this town, perhaps for a long time, so we shall part gentlemen. Let us make a compact, here, at Ilyusha’s stone that we will never forget first, Ilyushecka, and second, one another. And whatever happens to us later in life, if we don’t meet for twenty years afterwards, let us always remember how we buried the poor boy at whom we once threw stones, do you remember, by the bridge? He was a fine boy, a kind hearted, brave boy, he felt for his father’s honor and resented the cruel insult to him and stood up for him. And so in the first place, we will remember him boys, all our lives. And even if we are occupied with most important things, if we attain to honor or fall into great misfortune -still let us remember how good it was once here, when we were all together, united by a good and kind feeling which made us for the time we were loving that poor boy, better perhaps than we are.

The problem with being a surfer is that once you've ridden a wave -not soup, but a real unbroken concave wall of liquified, concentrated storm power -you can never see a wave again without imagining it being ridden, preferably by you. It doesn't matter how big or how bad the wave is, you will always mentally envision yourself riding it. Even tiny sandlappers are scanned carefully for shape and contours as you imagine yourself only three inches tall getting the scaled-down ride of your life. The reason I am reminding you of our common sub-cultural customs is to make the following point:

“A wave is not ennobled by the presence of a surfer.”

You know what luck is? Luck is believing you’re lucky.
- A Streetcar Named Desire

To N.E.C.:
You have lots of dreams I know.
Now it’s close of the show.
Let’s hope it all passes by in the end
So get yourself along, you’re my best friend
- Air Supply

Run wild out on the edge of time child,
Carry your dreams away love.
No one can hold you now.
- B. Streisand

Movin’ right along . . . with good friends you can’t lose.
- Kermit & Fozzy Bear

Looks like we made it!
- B. Manilow

Live for the moment.

Cathy Maleady

We are the music-makers,
And we are the dreamers of dreams,
Wandering by lone sea breakers,
And sitting by desolate streams.
- Arthur W.E. O’Shaughnessy

All that we see or seem is but a dream within a dream.
- E.A. Poe

You know what bugs the hell out of me . . .
- C.A.M.
Bobby Owens

Be happy - if you're not happy what's so cool about surviving? We'll be alright. I suppose we just go on.
- Tom Stoppard

Now here I go again, I see the crystal visions
I keep my visions to myself
It's only me
Who wants to wrap around your dreams and

Have you any dreams you'd like to sell?
- Stevie Nicks

Please take my advice,
Open up the tired eyes.
- Neil Young

It's better to burn out than it is to rust.

And after a while, you can work on points for style,
Like the club tie, and the firm handshake.
A certain look in the eye and easy smile
You have to be trusted by the people that you lie to
So that when they turn their backs on you,
You'll get the chance to put the knife in.
- Pink Floyd

Subdivisions-
In the high school halls,
In the shopping malls
Conform or be cast out
Subdivisions-
In the basement bars,
In the backs of cars
Be cool or be cast out
- Rush

Why these things happen, I don't understand
But Lord it sure can hurt a man
Why won't my friend take me as I am cause your friend, Lord, is the most important thing.
Lynrd Skynrd
Anne “Boo” Percy

Well I’m afraid of changing ’caus I’ve built my life around you, but time makes you bolder, even children get older, and I’m getting older too.

I passed one who had
Slain thousands
And thousands more
Thronged at his side
And granted him
A life of peace
With pennants waving gaily
Over his lands

And I passed one who had Saved thousands
And one more came
And sat by his side
And played to him
On an ancient lyre
And kissed his hand
on leave-taking

And the slayer and the
Savior were one man
And the thousands
Slain and the
Thousands saved
Were one man
And the throngs who Attended the first
And the one who
Sang for the last
Were one man

Even then I think it still ... 121%

Thanks,

. to the teachers and coaches for all of their guidance, consideration and effort in helping me throughout the years.
. to my friends who have helped me through the bad times with laughter and who have made the good times I’ve had even better.
. to everyone who encouraged me to graduate and those who assured me that I would.

Good luck to everyone in the future and I wish everyone in the class of ’83 much happiness and success in their future as well.
Zach Vause
