A. Dexter Chapin
"Doc"

The relationship between St. Andrew's and Dr. Dexter Chapin began long before he came here, in 1984, as a Biology teacher and a soccer coach; it began in 1958 when he enrolled in St. Andrew's as a 11 former. Since then, he has contributed more to the school as a student, a class president, a prefect, a teacher, an advisor, and a friend than we can ever really thank him for. His fascinating classes, strange stories and statistics, and consistently logical advice have helped a huge number of St. Andrew's students through Biology, Zoology, and other difficult times. Yet, as do all good things, Dr. Chapin's relationship with SAS must come to an end. Next year he will be leaving us to heed the advice of some anonymous author and "go west". Although he is leaving, he will never be forgotten here, and we hope that he will remember us with as many fond memories as we will remember him. We will miss him, and we wish him and Karen and Forrest boundless good luck. For all that he has given us, the class of 1989 fondly dedicates its yearbook to A. Dexter Chapin- Thanks Doc.
Fall Term
People may ask why we play football, when in the past few years we have had a losing record. "Why don't you play soccer? They have a better record." The fact is that each and every one of us goes to every practice and game to put all our effort on the football field because we love football. Each week we try to turn the intensity up one notch and try to get better for every game. This year we have succeeded in getting better every game. Football is a fun sport. I don't think anyone will forget our Colonel Richardson night game. We got a lot of young new kids who are all fired up to play. It will be exciting to see what they can do in the next couple of years. Good luck fellas.

Hole! ... Beams, that was a 9.4 ... Please don't make them blow the whistle ... let them wear the pinnies ... sideline raps ... Boom Chicka Boom!! Thanks everyone for a great sea season. Good Luck next year G.B, CM, LS, AW, SS, JB, KC, JW, BH, Ms. LeBlanc, and Mrs. Jacobs (we'll miss you). Long Live the PSYCHOS!!

One . . . Two . . . Three . . . Four . . . What do you think these sticks are for?? Go, Fight, Win, SCORE!!!

Thanks to Mr. Roach, Mr. Austin, Ridie, Kim, and everyone else who helped make this year so great. Good luck to next year’s varsity -you’ve got a tough act to follow!

Thanks to our coaches, managers, and players. We had a great year.
Women's Cross Country

The Girls Cross Country team did it. We had a full team and we were not out there just to thin our thighs. All six of us gave it our all (even though it was painful at times) and the results, well, they speak for themselves. Thanks Ms. Greppin and congratulations you guys, you did it!
The Cross Country Team had an exceptional year, finishing its dual meet season with its best record ever, 12-1, and a second place finish in the DISC meet. Though our success can be measured by our record, the true success was helping each other through practices and through meets. Team dedication was phenomenal and our hard work brought the Division II State Championship trophy to St. Andrew's (Mac Wilcox finished 4th, Darron Mills 6th, Ari Ellis 13th, Greg Rhodes 29th, Tore Olsen 32nd, Jared Ravich 33rd, and Nick Blum 64th). In short, this year was a grand experience and "Our legs were with us." Congratulations and thanks to our fearless leader, Mr. Cameron — "What an animal!"
Varsity Volleyball

I only worked on this production for the final week of rehearsals, but what I saw develop during this time was something I will remember. I saw a group of people, some with differences, put aside those differences and work together as a unit. That unit turned out an excellent play that was loved by everyone. Blithe Spirit was an excellent example of the kind of things that different people working together can bring about.

The 1988-89 squash team began this season with uncertainty. Our top two players had graduated and our coach had been promoted. Since our competition is the best in the country, most of us planned to have a fun and restful season before crew and tennis; however Ms. Greppin had other plans. She recognized the talent and the will to win in each of us and pushed us hard to develop the mental strength we all possessed. Good luck to the 1989-90 squash team.

The Captains
The 1988-89 Varsity Women's Squash Team salutes its captains: Sara, the food captain; Jenny, the chili captain; Carter, the southern captain; Amy, the flirt captain; Emilie the cheer captain; Chauncy, the bladder captain; and Janie, the 3rd form captain. The Upper Pell girls could not make it today. They tried and they tried, but could not find a way. All efforts were futile, and the ideas were quite lame. So the conclusion was always one in the same. No pictures do justice to this wonderful crew—Thus, an eloquent poem would be better for you. I'll describe each girl as precise as can be You, too, can share in our infinite glee. There's Bermuda born Janie who's brighter than all suns, We all like to call her "Hey you,. Big Guns!" Next comes her roommate - Swell Linda Murray, Who's hippie exterior brightens everyones day, Christy's all smiles and full of good cheer The guys all faint when she gets near. Jenny Hughes, her roomie, is sweet but shy- A designer one day? Our hopes are high. Like Jenny, Anne's quiet plus a varsity star It's clear that in her life she wants to go far. Sarah Hammond with her most prominent grin A glance at her and your heart she will win. Then there is Sophia - the bubbly German chick A personal ego-boost-she's everyones pick. Zortle, "Oh piggy one", she's brave, clean, and cool Those exotic long legs have boys in their drool. Kelly Giggle Garrett is A #1 With Emilie to live with she can't avoid FUN! Our fearless leaders we now must praise, Ms. Greppin and Gunther are terrific. Now are you anxious to behold this fine group? See the page in the back and be thrown for a loop. So, thank you cute gals, all old and all new. Pellians: I must say that "This Bud's for You!"

"The Snow Man"
One must have a mind of winter
To regard the frost and the boughs
Of the pine-trees crusted with snow;
And have been cold a long time
To behold the junipers shagged with ice,
The spruces rough in the distant glitter
Of the January sun; and not to think
Of any misery in the sound of the wind,
In the sound of a few leaves,
Which is the sound of the land
Full of the same wind
That is blowing in the same bare place
For the listener, who listens in the snow,
And, nothing himself, beholds
Nothing that is not there and the nothing that is.

I always knew I would laugh when I looked back on all the times that we cried. But I never thought I would cry when I looked back on the times that we laughed.
The bird with the thorn in its breast, it follows an immutable law; it is driven by it knows not what to impale itself, and die singing. At the very instant the thorn enters there is no awareness in it of the dying to come; it simply sings and sings until there is not the life left to utter another note. But we, when we put the thorns in our breasts, we know. We understand. And still we do it. Still we do it.

The Valley in the Clouds, which David Arkenstone has created, is a strangely familiar place. An evocative landscape, it is made of the very essence of your own experience; a timeless realm of vision and emotion springing from the root of our collective humanity. Sometimes whispering, sometimes resounding, here is a voice for every ear. More than a collection of songs, it is a total environment, an ancestral home to which we can return. In a place such as this, boundaries begin to blur and the lines between worlds and individuals lose their significance. It is a place of wonder close at hand, a place where pasts and futures merge, a half-remembered dream of a Valley in the Clouds.

Several nights ago I was discussing profound things with a lovely lady in one of my favorite restaurants. I happened to declare that life is a meaningless activity. That in fact it is up to us to give it meaning. For me, it is a trip through time and space that one can only make once, and therefore we might as well enjoy it. This means that I will try to get as much out of every minute, to enjoy it all, and to try, while doing so, not to inflict pain upon others. Life is!

This year's yearbook committee often found itself short of help, short of photographs, and short of hope, but in spite of it all, we managed to create a 1989 Griffin. As each deadline approached and passed, and we were still behind by 5, 15, or 30 pages, we learned a lot about the true meaning of responsibility and the true meaning of panic. There were some nights and some long afternoons, and several nervous breakdowns, but somehow we pulled it together in time. Now that it is all over, it is clear that we actually had at least as much fun as we had anxieties about it. We are proud of this yearbook and we hope you are too; we made it for you.

We would like to extend our infinite gratitude to those of you who took the time to help us, especially the following people:

John Higgins, for all his help in scheduling the form photographs.
Bill Carpenter, for donating excellent prints of the fall and spring drama productions as well as various candids, not to mention the training he gives to young photographers.
Bob Colburn, for his cooperation with our efforts to schedule the fall, winter, and spring sports' team photos.
Lee Higgins, for her help in setting up and posing her casts and crew for the fall and spring drama productions.
Carol Stegeman, for sharing public relations photos with the yearbook.
Varsity Lacrosse

The 1989 Varsity Tennis Team was not expected to do much this year. "Our tennis racket broke" last year when we placed third in the State Tournament with perhaps our best team ever fielded. This year we had hoped to compete well, but never expected to win. We also never had any "sure" wins. Our record, 7-5, reflects that statement. But, we peaked at the right time and showed everyone that St. Andrew's tennis is still number one in the state. -Roland Marquez '90 snacks ... girlyman ... constant-lee ... Dorothy Herndon ... r- r- r- radio ... joke of the day ... Does my hair look all right? ... that was when I was rowing internationally ... Our Nationals medals? Oh, they're in a shoebox in our closets somewhere ... road trippin' ... go slow & blow ... mickey mouse pancakes ... changing shorts in front of the entire city of Philadelphia ... That's a long way to drive to get your butts kicked ... No! We don't want to listen to your cheesy '70's music ... "Down on the Corner ..." Hey Coach! ... What does it feel like to ... ? Thank you Davis & Ellie.

Good luck next year Pup, McD, Cyre, Princess and, of course, Mags. "we may lose (but not often), and we may win, but we will never be here again"
