The class of 2010 is honored to dedicate this year's Griffin to our fabulous Mrs. Cottone

Beyond being the inspiring, enthusiastic teacher who never forgets brownies on our birthdays, she is also our unofficial class advisor. Generous, down-to-earth, sympathetic and yet demanding, Mrs. Cottone has helped and guided our class through many a crisis, always making our well-being her top priority. She is a person that we can all admire for her strength, exuberant smile, wise advise, and never-ending support.

Mrs. Cottone,
Thank you for all the love and care you have shown us in the past few years.
We love you too.
Let's sing a little bit before we go home.

Hey, where is that terrible ice cream?

Environmental Stewards
This year the Environmental Stewards were made up of an epic group of fun, enthusiastic and creative students. We worked hard to coordinate a Fall Festival, designed to provide students with an opportunity to participate in projects that proved that there are productive and fun alternatives to playing video games as boredom prevention. We worked together to brainstorm ideas for the current sustainability efforts and land use at St. Andrew's and for future efforts to continue in our tradition of dedication to environmental consciousness. Thanks for a great year and keep up the brilliance.

Clubs

Operation Smile

Operation Smile is a world-wide charity supporting those with a facial abnormality called a cleft pallet. This year, John Klein and Lucy Iselin started a chapter here at St. Andrews. It was, and continues to be totally legit.

Syzygy Pictures

Syzygy Pictures is a filming club/organization currently comprised solely of students from the class of 2012. These members have a range of talents, from scriptwriting to sound effects, actor to stuntman. We make movies (try to at least), and we hope to become the best filmmakers in the school. Some day, we will make a movie so splendid it will cure cancer.

Tad-Off-Tones

An a capella group made up of totally awesome singers who don’t know how to sing.

Chef Ray Appreciation Club

Good Day St. Andrew’s, and what a fine day it is. Today looked clear and sunny when we entered the dining hall and the Haussen Streusel was still warm! Haussen Streusel was invented circa September 8th, 2009 and usually after five minutes it is only crumbs! Could it be the yellow middle? Or the crumbly top? Or dare we say the molten fudge center? Regardless, we, who consume the delicacies and delights of Chef Ray’s making, boldly declare our appreciation in the form of this fan club.
Clubs

The Cardinal

The Cardinal is the student run newspaper of St. Andrew's school. We are an entirely open periodical whose primary goal is to provide St. Andrews with an outlet through which to express their thoughts and views. The content of The Cardinal ranges from arts to politics to sports and everything in between. They are led by their fearless leader, Wes Goldsberry.

WLK

We the members of the We Love Kelvin Club, commonly know as WLK (pronounced wilk) are totally and completely dedicated to the study of the awesomeness that is Kelvin Dana Green. We are all thoroughly enamored with his silky brown hair, shiny Razor scooter, cuddling abilities, '90's music, and curiosity for life. His intellect dazzles our world, and Leah would like to say that she especially likes his telescope. The rest of us prefer the green laser, as long as it's not pointed in our eyes. Meetings are held spontaneously, when the spirit takes us, but Christmas lights are the preferred lighting. There are many members, so many that they cannot all be pictured, but we consider ourselves the core, the heart of the group.

We love Kelvin forever and foralways,

Amen.
The Evan Stillings Club
A club devoted to the awesomeness of Evan Stillings.

Roulette
We know what they learned in college.

BECA
The BECA Society was founded in 2008 by Kervin Zamora and several other members of the Class of 2011, and has since grown to include St. Andreans from each Form. The Society was founded to support Bilingual Education for Central America (BECA), which is a phenomenal non-profit organization dedicated to providing quality bilingual education to low-income Hondurans.

Help for Haiti
Help for Haiti is one of the newest clubs at SAS. It was formed by Ann Satine and Ali Antoine who proudly represent their Haitian culture at St. Andrew’s. This group is a result of the 2010 Haiti Earthquake, and has quickly gained the resources and support it needs to bring relief to this West Indian country. By their effective results, Help for Haiti truly represents Haiti’s motto, “L’Union fait la force.”

The Outing Club
We like to take midnight hikes and admire the world around us from the best vantage point-- gettin’ out there ourselves. Members: nina l, emily g, lucy i, libby l, molly b, nancy h, crenshaw m, james e, huy t, frannie g, and many others. Everybody is welcome in the wilderness.
Folk and Bluegrass Society

The Folkgrass Emporium is a triweekly (as in, "once-every-three-weekly") convention of anywhere between three and twenty-three folk-music enthusiasts. For an hour on certain Sunday afternoons, the songwriting of (among others) Dylan, Seeger, Guthrie, and the Grateful Dead fills the Student Center, amid the comforting strains of guitar, mandolin, fiddle, ukelele, and (on rare and special occasions) Evan Stillings's spoons. It is a gratifying and wholesome means of sanctifying a portion of one's Sabbath day.

Independent Film Club

Members of the Independent Film Club (IFC) are those kids you see running around the school with video cameras. They are gods of everything from the jump-cut to the cross-fade.

Dead Scientists Society

The Dead Scientists Society (motto: "Back off, we're scientists!") does not meet in a cave. No one plays a saxophone or smokes a pipe while we meet. When there is smoke at our meetings, it emerges from our overworked electronics.

Pokemon Club

The Pokemon Club is a collection of the toughest Pokemon trainers in all of Kanto. When not battling Pokemon, they enjoy Nurse Joy, claiming their rightful place, and shunning nonbelievers.

The Andreal

The Andreal. How to describe it? I can't even count the ways. But, if you want the basics, The Andreal is SAS's literary magazine where student works of poetry, short fiction, and art are published.
Sunday School Teachers

Sunday School teachers are seniors specially selected to provide ministry to the faculty children on Sunday mornings. They are responsible for caring for the kids and bringing them down to chapel for communion with their families.

Vestry

Two students, one boy and one girl, are elected from each form to serve on the student vestry. This student governing body for the chapel program helps to determine where the offering will be directed. In addition, the vestry directs projects such as the Turkey trot and movie night which raise money for important causes in our world. This year they have raised money for Haiti and for St. Mark's School, our sister school in South Africa.

Acolytes

These students are integrally involved in the worship service by helping in the set up and in the procession. They are responsible for making sure that the candles are lit and extinguished and they help with the administration of worship. Their service ensures that the pageantry and the solemnity of worship is maintained.

Ushers

Ushers are the seniors responsible for helping with the administration of chapel services. They are responsible for ensuring that the congregation can move smoothly and quietly into and out of the chapel.

Communion Assistants

Senior lay eucharistic ministers who are licensed by the Diocese of Delaware and charged with assisting the chaplains by serving the chalice at Sunday morning services.

We wanted to thank you girls for an amazing season! We are so proud to be captains of such an awesome group of girls. Each and every one of you put great effort into staying focused at practice and playing your hearts out in each game. You girls embody true leadership and sensationalism and we greatly appreciate each of your roles on the team. Thanks Coach Wright and Coach Tower for being great, supportive coaches this year. We’ve all learned so much! And also a special thanks to Coach Rowe, Adrienne Fernandez, and Nancy Lilly for leading the Junior Varsity. This season, the St. Andrew’s Football team was going through a transitional period. Losing nine seniors and five coaches, the leadership styles and nucleus of the team changed dramatically. This caused many of the younger players to step up into leadership and starting positions to compensate for these losses. Many of the underformers answered this call, and that is why we had such a successful season this year. All of the players, from the first year freshmen to the third year varsity seniors, contributed to the success of our team. I thank every one of our players and coaches this season, for making the year so enjoyable. With only three seniors leaving, the team will be a force to be reckoned with next year. Good luck to all of my teammates with their winter sports and the next football season.
Dear Girls,

Thank you so much for a wonderful season. Through all of the illness and injury we pulled together as a team and made it work. Carolyn, your consistent pep and spunk gave us all energy and many laughs. Georgina, your poise under pressure was an example to us all. Sophia, we can all aspire to your level of grace (and flexibility 😊). Kelsey, way to not only be the only freshman, but also have an AMAZING first ever XC season! Connor, you battled your injury bravely and had a great PR race on a hilly course. Robin, not only did your promptness improve as the season progressed, but it was a pleasure to watch you grow as a runner. Victoria, we loved having your unconcussed presence with us, and your support throughout the season was an enormous support. Rose, all your crazy intense speed workouts were inspirational and really paid off. Lizzie, your dedication to the team brought us together, you were an amazing leader on and off the course. Meagan, you're funny, and you were a great running buddy during those overdistance days. Lydia, you finally had your first home race and it was great - we can't wait to see what next year holds. Molly, your willingness to run always brought our energy up--keep smiling!!

Love,
Your Captains

Many expected a "rebuilding season" from the Men's Cross Country team, having a few amount of returning runners. Instead, the team gained a lot of competitive new recruits, and ended up starting off the season strong with both our Varsity and JV teams. Returning runners pushed themselves to new heights and first-year runners were able to compete with seasoned athletes due to their determined attitude. We broke through the rebuilding season to create the most improved, competitive team in the history of the school. Most importantly, we had tons of fun doing it: we didn't forget how to destroy boys' dorm showers with Appoquinimink mud, how to catch t-shirts in our mouths, how to wade like Rambo, or be the biggest (and bestest) team in the school. We didn't forget to wear lingers, or dominate the competition. Whether from a perspective of how many races we won, how much fun we had, or how hard each member worked, no matter how you look at it SAS Cross Country 2009 had an incredible season.

Girls–

This was an incredible season - the excitement and determination you all brought to each and every practice and game laid the groundwork for our unforgettable season. Our team’s undeniable chemistry made for an awesome soccer season both on and off the field.

seniors: Each of you carried the team in a unique and positive way, and your leadership brought the team together and set the tone for some awesome victories.

juniors: Your hard work - even during our grueling practices - inspired the team and the effort each of you showed was truly motivating. We know you will be great leaders next year, and we can’t wait!

sophomores: Your CRAZY enthusiasm and spunky personalities created an atmosphere that made us remember why we play - to have FUN. Keep up the spirit of the game, and keep shooting!

freshman: We loved getting to know each one of you and we appreciate your drive to improve and contribute. We look forward to watching your progress in the years to come.

Great season girls!! Good luck in the year to come!

Girls-
We had a stellar season. When Myers and O'Shea upped the intensity, we immediately rose to the challenge, even though it meant running almost every day and doing that irritating box drill. As a result, we were far quicker on the field, and we began to play cohesively as the season progressed. This has been the best season that we've ever had on JV soccer. Thank you so SO much! Good luck next year! Make us proud.

A note from our Captains:

This year our team fought aggressively yet maintained award worthy sportsmanship on the court. Playing a total of 19 matches, the St. Andrew’s girls’ varsity squash team came away with many victories. While our nerve wrecking wins were exciting, this year we became a real family. Celeste, the baby in the family, kicked butt as number four on the team. Cesca put 100% into everything with or without combat boots. Liza, Henrietta, and Charlotte, the middle loving sisters, always brought the pep to our steps. And last but not least, the big sistas... Kira, Lizzie, Margot. Without your support on the team and constant encouragement we would not have been as successful.

ONE Family.

And of course the papa bear (the boss). Mr. Speers, thank you for all the advice and passion that you brought to the team this year. You pushed us to be our best and for this we thank you. Good luck next year!

Dear Team,

Where to start? In one hundred and one days, we have managed to surpass all earlier expectations and meet what seemed like unreachable goals. In eighteen games, we have transitioned to a whole new level of connection, intensity and passion. In five hundred seventy six competitive minutes, we've conquered our enemies and reestablished our ground. Of course, while we all reached these goals individually and as a team, we could not have gotten this far without our dear Mr. Hyde. Not only did he put up with our blaring music on van rides...but he managed to learn every word to Ke$ha's “Tik Tok.” Nice. And of course we won't discuss those team “phrases and gags&giggles” that will never leave the court.

Seriously, all of you have made this team better than we ever thought possible. You are all amazing players and have so much potential for the seasons to come. Remember, if you play your heart out, you will never lose.

“We are one unit. We are one team. Together we stand.”

Love,
Cinda, Molly, and Grace

After a difficult but memorable season last year, the basketball team attempted to strengthen their reputation and have a better season. Their new erudite coach Terrell Myers and their dependable and devoted assistant coach David Miller molded the young team into a resilient unit of basketball players with their arduous and rigorous practices. The team was up to the challenge and used their strenuous perpetration to win more games and challenge better teams. Throughout the season the team faced adversity with the loss of players due to injury and external issues. The team remained unified and improved tremendously throughout the season. I would like to thank the coaches and all of the players for their dedication and diligence throughout the season.

Good Luck Next Year.
The wrestling team this year was one of the largest and most unified we’ve had in years. With guidance from Duff, Carrol and Carps, we had incredible growth and success through the season. The captains couldn’t have asked for a better group of guys.

Sam, Colin, and Austin

This year’s j.v. started the season off with zero wrestling experience, and our first meet against Westtown back in December revealed our lack of mat time as every one of our grapplers went down in defeat. It was an eye opener for us indicating that we had a lot of work to do if we wanted to be competitive. Coaches Duffy, Carroll and Carpenter couldn’t be more pleased with the dedication, focus and drive to improve displayed by all of our j.v.’s this year.

These young athletes scraped, gnawed, and clawed their way up the latter of success, rung by rung, and at the end of the day, our wrestlers finished the season with considerable mat time and with several wins under their belt. If one had to describe our rag-tag crew of j.v. grapplers this year, the words “fire in the belly” come to mind. Every single member of the team worked hard in practice everyday, they were punctual, focused, and it was truly enjoyable to watch them compete. This year’s j.v. will be next year’s varsity, and these young athletes are more than ready to make the jump to the next level. We topped the season off with two post-season tournaments. At the St. Georges Tech j.v. invitational tournament, everyone had five matches, and several members of the team had their hand raised in victory. Hunter Thompson had a spectacular win in the 1st round with a bear hug hold and quick first period fall. Sterling Cousar won two hard fought matches. Espen Christopherson won two matches as well. Ho-Chan won a very tight match that he was able to turn into a pin for the Saints. Charles Scott was also victorious on the day. There is one member of this team who deserves an award with the title: “True Grit Award” and that man is Jerry Jana. This dedicated athlete has been on time and has never missed a practice. You will never hear Jerry complain. His hard work will pay off for him. He is a great example for his teammates. The next true “True Grit Award” should go to Nancy Lilly. Nancy endured the hard grueling practices these past couple of seasons, she dealt with having to go to our competitions, weigh-in separately, dress and suit up alone in separate locker facilities. So not only did Nancy have to deal with the normal adversities and grueling aspects of our sport, but the going was even tougher for her because of the gender inequality. Nancy is a tough, competitive athlete. Chris Resiene served as this year’s captain. He was a great leader, always very helpful to his charges. Look for Chris to step up to varsity and make a lot of noise. This is the first full j.v. team for the Saints in at least 30 years! It was a great season. Go Saints!

This year's varsity squad started the year off with an eye opening crushing defeat at the hands of our Westtown rival in Pennsylvania. Our sole winner was captain Austin Glessner at 171 pounds. Our wrestlers were unfazed by the setback and they immediately got back into the Cameron Room and began their long, hard climb up the latter to success. Captains Austin Glessner, Sam Broer, and Collin Cousar quickly took hold of the reins and began to whip their team into shape. By early January, the team's hard work was beginning to pay off for them.

Highlights for the season include Captain Sam Broer's miracle match at 152 pounds where he found himself down by more than 10 points with less than a minute to go in the match and caught his Tower Hill opponent in a head and arm maneuver to secure the fall and win a closely contested meet for us in The Cameron Room 40-35. In our next meet against undefeated Bo-Manor, Austin faced a worthy opponent ranked 4th in the state of Maryland and won by a tech fall in 5:59. This exciting match gave the community of St. Andrew's a good look at perhaps one of the best wrestlers to compete in our Cameron Room in the last twenty years. Taylor Hennessy's high crotch lift and throw to secure the fall against his Bo-Manor opponent was nothing short of athletic poetry in motion and the home crowd loved it. Captain Collin Cousar's big win against his Friends opponent at the DISC put a cap on a great season and career as a grappler for the Saints. Captains Austin Glessner, Sam Broer and Collin Cousar led their team with intensity, grace and good sportsmanship.

The highlight of our season has always been the DISC tournament and this year's team did not disappoint the home fans.

We had 8 place winners this year. We put seven wrestlers into the finals, took home a 3rd place finish, we had 5 runners up and we crowned two DISC champions. Coaches Duffy, Carroll, and Carpenter couldn't be more pleased with the daily efforts and focus displayed by their wrestlers. A great season.

"It's how far you swim FAST!" -Coach Wallace
Each one of you has helped make this winter something we will never forget. Your dedication and devotion to the success of the team inspired each one of us to be better in the pool as competitors and on the dock as captains. We know that what we put you through this season wasn’t easy; but, whether it was choking on a snorkel, enduring 50 x 50 day, going hoarse cheering at each meet or even refraining from shaving your legs, you rose to the challenge.

We have consistently been in awe of your motivation and your positive attitude. The fact that each one of you was able to push yourselves to best times at DISCS without having any competition is representative of the drive that is within each of you.

Though we achieved both wins & successes, the real reason this season stands out is because of the friendships we’ve made these past few months; where there used to be just a team, the 43 of us built a family. Regardless of the statistics, the times, the state qualifications, we are confident when we say that each one of you has achieved greatness this season. Your greatness is manifested in the team you’ve made, the laps you’ve swum, the skills you’ve perfected, and most importantly the competitor and teammate you have each become.

By working together as a team, and as a family, you have reminded us, and each other, that a championship team will always beat a team of champions. You have come together to make something remarkable this year, something that is nearly impossible to leave, and for that we cannot thank you enough.

If you are reading this, you've probably helped me in more ways than you understand. Because of you, I have grown. You have pushed me, helped me to strive for the better, and helped me appreciate what are undoubtedly some of the most significant years of my life. I will remember St. Andrew's for the people like you. So, thank you. I am forever grateful. Anyone would be truly lucky to have friends like you.

With love,

Charlie

When we are no longer afraid, we begin to live.
Thanks to everyone who made my time here as bodacious as possible.

Especially: The Goldsberry Advisory, The Caldwells, Johnny-Boy Austin, All my roommates, My “Little Brother” Jack, My “Big Brother” Tyler. Photo Majors, The Private Investigators, Jamchylde, Mrs. Cottone, Golds, Ethos, Mr. Brown, and...

KELVIN!

I remember our room. Freshman year, we had the whole world (of St. Andrews) ahead of us; now we are at the end of the road.

To all you Hybrid-driving, Liberal Minded peons, think about what you are doing, please, for all of our sakes.

To everyone else, “Adieu.”
I have never really seen a picture of myself that I was completely satisfied with,

So I took pictures of everyone else.
First of all I want to thank Nina Song, for always being there for me and helping me out throughout my entire time at SAS. I could not have made it without you!

I want to thank the Tucker: Forrest, Matt, Jack, Ted, Andrew, Pete, Marco and Toni.
Rowing with you this season was an experience I will never forget.
Thanks also to Sam and Michael for some unbelievable Jam-Sessions.
Special thanks also to Charlie, Meagan and of cause Adrienne. You are unbelievable and I will never forget you!
Thanks to all the people who have made my year at St. Andrew’s the time of my life.
Thanks to Dan, Zach, BG, Connor, Aaron, Joe Lee, Joe Seiler, Danielle, Olivia, Leah, Nancy, Rose, Karishma, Salewa, Leda, Kai Xin, Rebecca, Sierra, Liza, Angel, Chris, Nancy, Dheuris, Davis, Ann, Lisa, Mike Ding, Annie and Ian.

I’d like to thank all of my teacher for their great work. I would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Hammond. They were a great support in and out of the classroom. I would like to thank Mrs. Roach. You made me understand what it means to go beyond the surface. I would like to thank Mrs. Kennedy for never giving up on me, Mr. Hyde for his enthusiasm and Mrs. O’Neill for showing me that you can get it right (even if it takes 50 attempts!). I also want to thank Mr. Costa. I want to thank you for not giving up on me and showing me that hard work is rewarded. All of you have inspired me in an incredible way. A special thanks goes out to Mr. Harney: the greatest advisor on this planet!

Dear Mr. O’Connell, dear Mr. Brown, I want to thank you for giving me so much! I have never experienced something like being on your teams before. Both of you inspired me and gave me an incredible self-confidence. You taught me that you can always go this little bit further and that it is not about you but about the team as a whole.
I also want to thank ASSIST and St. Andrew’s School. Without this program and this wonderful school I never would have met all these great people!
Brian and James. You guys have made SAS amazing. You both have always been there for me through these years. I will miss you guys so much. (and come visit me!)

This is my feeble attempt to thank everyone at SAS. All of my teachers have been amazing: Mr. Ross and Ms. Prissman, thanks for your help with the GSA. Mrs. Roach, you've been an awesome advisor; without our weekly GLEE break I probably couldn't have made it through senior year. Mr. O'Connell: you've been so understanding the past four years. Thanks for guiding me the entire time. To my roommates: Garrett, Ryan Koss, Dan, John, Peter Desmoner (and practically Matt): I loved every minute of living with you guys. Thanks to Ryan especially for putting up with my incessant complaining.

Prayl/Angel/Gel: anything I say here will underestimate your friendship. Joe Lee and Alfredo: late night work sessions were infinitely more fun because of you guys. The MEN of Schmallie: I totally enjoyed being your senior. Go forth, and be manly. Victoria and Danielle: I hope you've already made plans to see Eclipse with me. Art Majors: I'll miss our countless hours in the Studio. Ryan Bickley: I'm glad to be the Man to your Mang. Will Mac and BG: thanks for keeping me from working. Lizza: I'll always appreciate your bad influence. Olivia: it's been a fascinating eight years. I LOVE YOU ALL! THANKS SAS!
Huge thanks to all my beloved friends who made my St. Andrew’s experience unforgettable and entertaining: Rob, Alfredo, John, Charlie, Ben, Ryan, Danielle, Devin, Collin, Thando, Sierra, Nina, Salewa, Kai-xin, and Chris. Special thanks to my dear cousin Aaron who has been patient enough to deal with me as a roommate, friend and a motivational companion. Love all of you.

Thanks to all the former and current Koreans of St. Andrew’s: Michael, Brian, Dae, SJ, Albert, Terry, Joo yeon, James, Chris. You guys set great examples for me to emulate. Shout out to all my current Korean students, John, DH, Josh, Michael, Ben, Yeojin, Ricky, William, Julian, Andrew, Chae, Robert. Keep up the great work you guys have been doing and promise to keep in touch. Love you guys.

Also big thanks to the Caldwells (you guys were my athletic gurus), Ramillers, Dupreys, Shen Laoshi, Mrs. Roach, Mrs. Cottone, St. Andrew’s as a whole and all whom I may have forgotten to include... With love and care -Leong Hun Lee ’10

I think we can all agree that I am the man and that there would be no fun without me but let me get off my high horse and thank everyone who made my St. Andrew’s experience amazing...Obviously I have to thank James, Rob, Fredo, Devin, Emily, Ruth, Grace and basically all the guys and girls in the class of 2010!!! Baine and Faith, Mrs. Duprey and Mrs Cottone made my life here possible. You guys are fudgin’ AWESOME and I’m gonna miss you all...

(I mean what more can you say?)
Sometimes in our lives we all have pain
We all have sorrow
But if we are wise
We know that there’s always tomorrow

Lean on me, when you’re not strong
And I’ll be your friend
I’ll help you carry on
For it won’t be long
Till I’m gonna need somebody to lean on

Please swallow your pride
If you have things you need to borrow
For no one can fill those of your needs
That you don’t let show

Lean on me, when you’re not strong
And I’ll be your friend
I’ll help you carry on
For it won’t be long
Till I’m gonna need somebody to lean on

If there is a load you have to bear
That you can’t carry
I’m right up the road
I’ll share your load
If you just call me

So just call on me brother,
When you need a hand
We all need somebody to lean on
I just might have a problem
That you’d understand
We all need somebody to lean on

Lean on me when you’re not strong
And I’ll be your friend
I’ll help you carry on
For it won’t be long
Till I’m gonna need somebody to lean on the poverty of the future tenants gave them a right to my work. That their need constituted a claim on my life. That it was my duty to contribute anything demanded of me. This is the second-handers' credo now swallowing the world.

Lean on me.

"I came here to say that I do not recognize anyone's right to one minute of my life. Nor to any part of my energy. Nor to any achievement of mine. No matter who makes the claim, how large their number or how great their need.

"I wished to come here and say that I am a man who does not exist for others. Self-sacrifice is nothing else.

"It had to be said. The world is perishing from an orgy of self-sacrificing.

"I wished to come here and say that the integrity of a man's creative work is of greater importance than any charitable endeavor. Those of you who do not understand this are the men who are destroying the world. UNHAPPINESS = STUPIDITY.

"I wished to come here and state my terms: I do not care to exist on any others.

"I recognize no obligations toward men except one: to respect their freedom and to take no part in a slave society. To my country, I wish to give the ten years which I will spend in jail if my country exists no longer. I will spend them in memory and in gratitude for what my country has been. It will be my act of loyalty, my refusal to live or work in what has taken its place.

"My act of loyalty to every creator who ever lived and was made to suffer by the force responsible for the Cortlandt I dynamited. To every tortured hour of loneliness, denial, frustration, abuse he was made to spend — and to the battles he won. To every creator whose name is known — and to every creator who lived, struggled and perished unrecognized before he could achieve. To every creator who was destroyed in body or in spirit. To Henry Cameron. To Steven Mallory. To a man who doesn't want to be named, but who is sitting in this courtroom and knows that I am speaking of him."

Roark stood, his legs apart, his arms straigt at his sides, his head lifted — as he stood in an unfinished building. Later, when he was seated again at the defense table, many men in the room felt as if they still saw him standing; one moment's picture that would not be replaced.

The picture remained in their minds through the long legal discussions that followed. They heard the judge state to the prosecutor that the defendant had, in effect, changed his plea: he had admitted his act, but had not pleaded guilty to the crime; an issue of temporary legal insanity was raised; it was up to the jury to decide whether the defendant knew the nature and quality of his act, or, if he did, whether he knew that the

Dear St. Andrew’s,

Thank you St. Andrew’s. You’ve been my home for so many years. You’ve allowed me to meet amazing teachers and peers. Habibi, you’ve been my ponyo, my love, my friend. Without you, life I would not be able to comprehend.

Thank you Rebecca, Leah, Ben, Liza, COLD, Varsity theatre, Shieldsy, Angel, Kelvin, John, life could not be sweeter! Tania and Katie, it was hard without you here.

I hope my admiration and love for you both is clear.

Thank you Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Caldwell, The Roaches, Mrs. Ross, The Ramillers, Mr. Harvey, Ms. O’Neill, Lower Moss!

Mom, Dad, Aidan, Alice, I love you all so much.

All I have to say is... keep in touch! (Just kidding!)

I’ll miss the theatre, Gahan’s Room, Photolab, front lawn Crew docks at night and Alumni Point at dawn. A final word to those of you left behind:

Take advantage of each wonderful moment here! Signed,

OLIVIA McGIFF
LYNDSAY SARA WALLACE

St. Andrew's: You have been my home since I was a baby. I truly grew up on this campus, with this faculty, and have learned so much. Thank you all for everything.

COLD: I know this is not the end of our amazing friendship. Thank you Cinda, Olivia, and Devin for being my best friends through and through.

Selena: Going to school with you over the past few years has been a blast. Just remember to embrace every moment at St. Andrew's, because it all goes by too fast.

Katie Keats, Margaux, Molly W.: It is unbelievably hard for me to say goodbye to you three. I'll miss the laughs, the smiles, and the jokes (even if they were at my expense). Good luck next year!

Ryan: We've basically grown up together. Thank you for being someone I could always confide in.

Leda: You always chose the perfect moments to use your wonderfully witty banter. Thank you for putting a smile on my face.

Matt & Connor: Thanks for just being you two. Miss you always.

Peddie, Emily C., Caitlin, Pete, Zach: Thanks for all the motivation and competitiveness in swimming, and for supporting me no matter how difficult things were.

Ms. Domers: Thank you for your extravagant stories and insightful advice. On the field and in the pool you have made me a stronger athlete and a better student.

The Swim Team: It's been a blast – Good luck next year and thank you for all of your support. Strive for the best of the best and remember to always give 100% of the 100%!!!!

Class of 2010: You have made my experiences here better than I could've imagined. You all deserve the best in life. Have a blast.

SHOUT-OUTS: Kaley, My sophomore girls, Will R., Jameson, The Kennedy's, The Caldwell's, Mrs. Kiecan, Mr. Everhart, Prof. Señora, Señorita Smith, Mrs. Fritz & Sonny Garnett

Those who are pictured or written—thank you for enriching my experiences at SAS. Good luck forever.

Former graduates Sellers, Sara Khan, Mackenzie L., Tyler G., Lee, Greg, Wills, Alexa & Tyler – Thank you all for teaching me how to make it through.

Most of all, thank you to my mom and dad. You have always believed in me regardless of what others have said. Moreover, whenever I struggled you always knew what to say to cheer me up. I love you for everything you do for me. Thank you hardly covers that.

To my family:

You guys are the best in the world. I love you and you mean so much to me. I know I'll make it.

To all my friends:

You guys rock. I can't wait to hear from you soon. Good luck at your new schools! I'll keep in touch!

Love,

Dear Class,

I promise to always remember these years. You guys are the best friends I could hope for. I dedicate this to all the nights that we stayed up through 2 a.m. whether it be a good movie involving Velociraptors or just having a good ole rip sesh. To Scovill for helping me find my potential, and for taking the scenic route back from the wahoo the last day of Sophomore year. To Dan and Jack, who I 'wasted' so much time with. To Sam, my favorite kitty. To Ryan and Matt, my bros in crime. To Emily, my favorite couch. To Catherine, who I can always make fun of. To Ruth, who was there for me so many times. To all those coaches who pushed me beyond my limits. To all the teachers who made me think till my head hurt. To the upperclassmen who gave me a goal to reach for. To all the crazy underclassmen that make life here so entertaining. To all my sophomores on Schmolze, who made my nights... interesting? To all those musicians who challenged me and made me want to push further. To the frosty run. To the polar bear jump. To the floating dock. To free days. To crew. To swimming. To XC. To Mrs. Kerrane and all my acapela homies. To the front lawn and all the frisbees thrown there. And most of all to all of you who make Saint Andrew's what it is. I love you all and will miss you terribly.

Sincerely,

Mom & Dad,
Please don’t worry, but be happy! I know my future is bright and your smiles will make it even brighter.

Brother,
Although I may be a little taller, you will always be my one and only big brother.
I will forever write limericks. In my youth I dabbled in quail hunting (I speak figuratively, of course) but a close friend has since reformed me. I love the woods, still. Perhaps I quote "Beloved" too often, but how could I not? November remains precious.

To the people on this page and not on this page (there are probably more of the latter), you're a duduface.

But, in all seriousness. When I was a freshman I didn't even know what a page was. Now, it's clear that I don't know what I don't know how I couldn't even get everyone. But, I'm just have to tell you I love you in person (I know it). Well, Saint saying goodbye, the end of annie hall comes I'm not woody allen, stab at it anyway: A his psychiatrist and so brother's crazy- he chicken. Thank you St. Andrew's. Thank you to all my teachers, advisor, dorm parents, and college counselor, you were great mentors and friends. To all my friends, you guys are more than just my best friends, you guys are my brothers and sisters. To all my seniors before me, my freshies, sophomores, and juniors. I love you guys. Thank you for a great four years. Thank you of course to my family, Sid, Gudi, Mommy, Papa, Dadi, Nani, Jasper, I love you all so much.

Thank you for supporting and loving me.
"It is not the critic who counts, not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood, who strives valiantly, who errs and comes short again and again, who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions and spends himself in a worthy cause, who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who, at worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who knew neither victory nor defeat." — Theodora Roosevelt, 1910

To those who defined my St. Andrews experience:

Thank you for showing me that it is okay to be a little awkward, for giving me a voice and uniqueness. The four years I have spent here have been the most exciting of my life (though that may not be surprising to those who know me well) and I will remember them all and all of the people who made them as wonderful, baffling, edifying, and crazy as they were. Thank you for giving me the courage to change, to grow, and to live life fully.

Nancy—I am honored to have known you seen your wonderful heart. You will always be my roommate.

Charlie—You have been an amazing friend, and I hope I will continue to baffled you.

Well—As of now there are no pictures of the two of us. I find it slightly sad.

Thank you for always being there and speaking your mind.

Rachel—I cherish the time we have spent together. You have always been a true friend.

Andrew—Thanks for always being there.

Peyton—I love you so much and you always know exactly what to say.

Mr. Roach—Thank you for showing me what could be.

Mr. Richey—You gave me my voice. Thank you for everything and all your advice.

Thank you St. Andrews and class of 2010 for an incredible time! It's been fun. LOVE YOU ALL!

Thank you mom, dad, Andrew, and Luke for all your love and support. couldn't have done it without you!

PLAY HARD ~ LAUGH LOUD ~ LOVE STRONG
Manda-You are such an amazing person. Thanks for being there for me through all the laughs and tears. I love you so much baby!

Best-Over the past 4 years, your friendship has meant so much to me. Not everyone has someone that always has their back. I'm glad I got to be a part of yours.

Thanks for being my BFF.

Daniki-Thanks for the tennis matches and for being the best Co-Pres. ever.

James-You have been the best. Thanks for always looking out. Love you fam!

Rob-As annoying (and extra) as you may be, I still love you. And in the future, I won't knock it until I try it... Lol.

I also love you with all my heart, Jade (my friend of 20 years). You have meant so much to me.

Angel Peet-You have been the best. Although you are the season, you are the most of my heart. Love you a lot more. Thanks for being my Sas experience.

Mommy & Daddy-Thank you for all the sacrifices you have made for me. I love you. I am so blessed to have you as my parents.

Cris-Even though I may not physically be with you, you have been my support and inspiration in so many ways. I know I can count on you and you will always be there for me.

May-You have been there for me sometimes. I may not always understand you, but just know that I need you there. Thank you for being such a wonderful part of the family.

I am so grateful to have you all as a part of my life. Thank you for always being there for me.

Senora-You have been the best advisor I could have ever asked for. Thanks for putting up with me and my "sentimentality". I'm so glad that I will always be apart of the family. You will definitely always be apart of mine.

Sawana and Kevin-You two have been the best. I would have even asked for anyone else. Thanks for being there for me. I love you both, always. No matter what. But now I know that I can rely on you more.

Devin Duprey 219
To my coaches: You taught me that pain is good. Thank you.

To my teachers (especially math and science): You're all saints.

To the bands: We may not have written 'originals', but dammit we had FUN.

Golds: It took four years, but we finally destroyed the student-teacher relationship. Love. Alfredo Enriquez: despite our disagreements, you have been the best cut-up buddy I have had the fortune to know. John Lavanga: Happy people are boring and you are not. Without your encouragement and companionship my world would be an infinitely smaller place. Zach Brach: You are one of the goofiest men I have ever known, and for that I thank you. Sam Broer: For the past four years you have fueled my inner child and kept him happy. Thank you. Mike and Andrew: I have seen (and often accompanied) you two performing some of the stupidest stunts of all time, and I wouldn't have it any other way. Joe Selier: Together we have come up with some of the most harebrained schemes I've ever heard of, and had more than our fair share of laughs along the way. It was awesome. Kelvin Green: Whether or not you want to hear this, it has to be said; you are a good person. Simple as that. And I'm sorry about the gum. Dan Hasse: You're my favorite bipolar disorder. Go get some sleep. R.K.V. and Garrett: Best room ever. You guys rock, both as a pair and as separate units. Ryan Bickley: The freshmen don't believe it, but we had a great time rooming, as long as I toed the line. Evan Stillings: You have my vote.

CW2: Proof that learning can be fun, but remember: sometimes being smart isn't all that great. Special thanks to C.J.C. for having the highest shenanigan tolerance of all time. Tucker 2009: Best season ever, despite Dora. To N.G.C.: Thanks for not giving up, the poetry and the cookies. To the Greppin: We went down with style. Yah-hip! Thirds basketball 06-08: Who cares if we couldn't understand the plays? The important thing was the name. Charlie Hughes: That was one weird room. Hillier 09-010: While most people look at you and see a ragtag group of immature, trigger-happy ragamufins, I see the fine upstanding gentlemen you will all become. Stay in school. Robert and Rasmussen: your good kids: keep it that way. Bobby: I don't say it often, but you're my brother and I love you. Rob and Sanchez: you're my favorite couple. Bing-Glen: Your abuse of you tube has wasted more of my time than I can remember.

Shinigami like apples. Ben Wainwright: I refuse to agree with you. Ever. But don't that come between us. Cous: I now know the truth about everything, assuming you were right. Matt Gallagher: Your middle name is Todd. Ned Robinson: It's always been about Eddie and Billy Joe. To everyone in the main common room before winter break: that was possibly the best night in my St. Andrew's career. To C.O.D., facilitating class bonding since day one. To the class of 2010: There's a reason were the favorite. You guys are awesome. If you think that you should be included in this paragraph, you're probably right: but there's only so much space and I have less than ten minutes to finish this. Finally, to St. Andrew's. I may not have been the model St. Andrew, but that doesn't mean I don't love it here. Even though I didn't learn as much as I could have, I grew up, and that's what counts. Thank you.

I owe each of you my thanks and/or apologies (in alphabetical order):

Michael, your ambition kept me working just as hard... or at least trying. Mr. Austin, thank you for pushing me academically and athletically. Ryan Bickley, I’m sorry I “mirror-imaged” every item in your room. Thanks for (sort of) forgiving me. Zach, friends since first grade? Damn. That’s a long time. Sam, you’re the first man to convincingly dry-hump me. Many thanks. Frank, I could never replicate your humor, but thanks for letting me occasionally try. Mrs. Caldwell, thank you for the three best seasons of soccer I’ve ever experienced. Mr. Caldwell, thank you for keeping me in line. It’s done more good than you can imagine. Cindy, I used to wonder why you were always so incredibly kind. Then I realized it just comes naturally to some people. Thank you for that. Emily, thanks for the Victoria’s Secret magazine.... I hope I’m not forgetting anything. Mr. Childers, we asked you the meaning of life and you actually gave us an answer: “Dah-dum da-da-da. Dah-dum da-da-da.” Victoria, your dry wit always makes me laugh. I’m glad there’s someone out there who shares my sense of humor. B.G., for some reason you never seem worried, yet I always worry. How do you stand me? Actually, don’t answer that. Mr. Costa: “What’s the plan, Mr. Hasse?” The plan is to graduate. Thank you for the constant reminders. Colin, your wisdom is... unconventional, but that doesn’t mean I’m not wiser just from knowing you. Devin, I’ll miss our Sunday tennis matches. Alfredo, you defined my concept of poetry. Thanks. Peter Deroussie, thank you for leading the Triumvirate with grace and humility. Matt Gallagher, how are you always so happy? Seriously, I need to know. Matt Gamber, nobody has ever called me “Dan-the-man” as much as you have. Catherine, thanks to you and your endless energy. I’m just a little less boring. Kelvin, thanks for putting up with me for four years. Charlie, I know this is vague and sort of cliché, but you really did make me a better person. Ryan Koski-Vacirca, thank you for never hitting me in the face. Keep fighting that urge. John, I’m pretty sure we’re long-lost twins. I’m looking into it. Will, I never said this but probably should have: you’re a fantastic actor (albeit with minor memorization issues). Bailey, I will never forget the day you helped me carry an entire dolly track up two flights of stairs. It is the most selfless act I have ever witnessed. Thank you for that and everything else. Crenshaw, someday, I’ll make a movie about you. Thank you for giving me enough material to write seven screenplays. Jack, you’re a wise bum. I hope some of it rubbed off on me. Willy, in the over-quoted words of Roger Waters, “Shine on you crazy diamond.” And watch the language. Becca, you are just an astoundingly nice person every single day. Thank you for never asking the same of me. Mr. Roach, any attempt to thank you would be trite and insufficient. I can’t even describe my gratitude. Andrew: “Dan, you suck at everything... except movies.” Best advice I ever got. Joe, your ADD in addition to my ADD was... damn, I forget what I was going to say... thank you. Canel, sorry I sort of ditched you at our freshman prom. I’ve always felt terrible about it. Thanks for not beating me up. Ned, your cynicism is enough to put any man through therapy. Thank you for the inspiration. Brian, you’re my hero. It’s that simple. Aaron, I’m sorry you never got to meet Katie – maybe some other time. Bennett, thank you for dancing shirtless just so I could make a stupid movie. Evan, you’re the best subject matter any filmmaker could ever ask for. I’ll finish Evan Stillings: Hoop Dreams some day. Leda, you deserve more respect than I could ever give you. Thank you for responding to my letters. Ben, given the state of the quad, I probably would have gone insane if you hadn’t been there to stare at me disapprovingly. Mom, Dad, Katie, and Megan, thank you for your very unconditional love.

-Daniel Victor Hasse
To everyone I met in the
Thanks a lot for the great times.
Love you all.

Everyone who deserves one, you know who you are.
Coming into a community like this formed who I truly am, and persuaded me to reformulate and redefine my personality, my direction, and my aspirations. I am myself now because of everyone here that mean so much to me. My life is about my friends, who have helped me see what it's really all about...

With love, respect, admiration, and well wishes:

There are places I remember all my life, Though some have changed
Some forever, not for better
Some have gone and some remain. All these places have their moments
Of lovers and friends I still can recall
Some are dead and some are living In my life I loved them all.

And with all these friends and lovers There is no one compares with you
And these mem'ries lose their meaning When I think of love as something new
And I know I'll never lose affection For people and things that went before
I know I'll often stop and think about them. In my life I loved you more.

And I know I'll never lose affection For people and things that went before
I know I'll often stop and think about them. In my life I loved you more
In my life I loved you more

Devin,
We are thankful to God for ordering your steps and allowing you to walk in the gifts He so graciously placed in you. We are grateful to St. Andrew's for helping you grow in those gifts and inspiring you to make a difference in the world. We are excited, both for you and with you as you begin the next phase of your journey. Know that we are here for you always no matter what.

We love you with all our heart,

Of course, I love you too. The Storm Clouds are such a great book. We always celebrated Muffin Day on the 1st of May. That's not me! I'm tired of y'all putting me in the middle?

Oh, Manny!

Still supporting us.

Surprise, it's me!

I love you. You love me.....

Those schoolgirl days, of telling tales and biting nails are gone,
But in my mind,
I know they will still live on and on,
But how do you thank someone, who has taken you from crayons to perfume?
It isn't easy, but I'll try,

If you wanted the sky I would write across the sky in letters,
That would soar a thousand feet high, to
St. Andrews, with Love

The time has come,
For closing books and long last looks must end,
And as I leave,
I know that I am leaving my best friend,
A friend who taught me right from wrong,
And weak from strong,
That's a lot to learn,
What, what can I give you in return?

If you wanted the moon I would try to make a start,
But I, would rather you let me give my heart, to
St. Andrews, with Love

Dear Liza,
Everything you have been given, you have given back to us twice.

Thank you & Love Always,

Baseball

Battling through adversity is one of the most underrated parts of any team’s dynamic. This year, Varsity Baseball valiantly battled through injuries with pride. The many highlights add to our list of accomplishments. The numerous home runs, no-hitters, diving catches, and double plays illustrate this point. Proudly, our team went into every game with a chance to win, an attitude worth striving for. For the third time since the award’s creation, St. Andrew's Baseball was presented with the Sportsmanship Award. The avid display of leadership, camaraderie and work-ethic were always evident on the diamond. I can say without doubt that the foundation for future years is very strong.

Give 'em hell next year, Saints. -Varsity Captain Charlie Hughes

Luckily for the 2010 Saints boys’ lacrosse team, records are not the only things that define a season. This spring, the Saints struggled to a 5–10 finish placing fourth among the five teams in the Independent School Conference. Highlights of the season included wins against downstate teams, Caesar Rodney and Dover High School. In addition, the Saints dismantled crosstown rivalry, Middletown High School. Another highlight of our season was outstanding senior leadership provided by the captains: Ben McDonald and Russell Train, as well as by the other seniors: Will MacIntosh, Jordy Gowen, Garrett Hart and Aaron Seo in the spring. Junior Cam McDonald was superb winning over 60% of his face-offs while the trio of Ben McDonald, Henry Mellon, and Taylor Hennessy provided an anchor on the defensive end of the field. In middle third of the field, co-captain Train was unstoppable as he scooped up ground balls, directing clearing, and even tallied a couple of goals himself. The midfield corps was led by three year starter, Bucky Pierce and supported by Gowen, Hart, Seo and John MacIntosh. For their consistent effort throughout the season, several seniors were selected to the All Conference team: Ben McDonald, Russell Train, and Bucky Pierce, all of whom will be going on to play lacrosse in college.

Girls,
This season we started out as 36 individuals but soon became four boats, one team. We put time in on the water to catch up to other teams but it was our heart that really made the difference. To the Bates: Your energy and willingness to be dropped into the top three boats made you a truly unique group of girls. You are the future of this program and we look forward to see what strong and poised rowers you become. To the Miller: Your dedication and spirit was a strong base for this year’s program. Never lose your heart because love of the sport is what keeps our boat strong. To the Abigail: With your dedication and spirit you pushed this program every day, challenging the Natty Mo and leaving it all out on the water. You are the reason this program will be so competitive next year. To the Natty Mo: You girls meant so much to us. You are the new leaders of the program, so maintain the speed we have now and keep fighting for the inches that will let you win. We love every one of you so much and watching you grow into rowers with passion for the sport and pride in the school you row for has been a great and unanticipated reward from this season.
With the spirit and dedication you proved this season we are confident that next year you can reach new heights and new speed, kicking butt as Fast-Andrews. Make us proud.

Love,
Your Captains
This season we fought for every ball, we always put in our best effort, and we played like champions to achieve our success. But above it all our team became a close-knit familial unit. Our little sisters, Kara, Annie, and Annabel, brought the power with their youthful energy and spunk. Our lovable juniors Kristina, Omololu, Elizabeth, and Henrietta, always set the perfect balance between hard work and lots of fun. We can’t wait to see how all of you have grown in the coming tennis seasons.

And finally, big sisters Bailey, Margot, and Leda, you led the team with great spirit and brought joy to practice. We couldn’t have done it without you. Just like the keystone in an arch, you held our team together! With the help of Ms. Wright and Mrs. Roach, our season was successful, enjoyable, and unforgettable. Thanks to the team for making it such a good one!

Love, your captains.
