The Class of 2015 would like to dedicate this year's Griffin to both

Mr. Will Speers

and

Mr. John McGiff

Although their expertise lay in two different fields, their shared vitality, passion, and commitment to teaching mark them as role models for the both our class and the school.

Mr. Speers has been an exceptional leader and mentor for our class. As an English teacher, he has fostered a love for and deeper understanding of literature. As a member of the community, he has inspired compassion and kindness with his charisma and sense of humor. In our senior year, he lead the school with grace and humility as Acting Headmaster. And if that wasn't enough, he ploughed through days of inclement weather and unprecedented illness with a positive attitude and calm demeanor that never faltered. The picture of resilience, he stands as an example of leadership to our class. He has taught us that making meaningful connections can be as simple as a smile, a wave, or a flick of the hand at waist level.

Mr. McGiff has also been an essential presence during our time at St. Andrew's. As a visual arts teacher, an advisor, and the Co-Chair of the Arts Department, his commitment to the field has inspired our class and the school to tackle the world of aesthetics with fervor. He has encouraged us all to push our boundaries and create a few "monsters" so that we might grow as artists, thinkers, and people. His sense of humor keeps us laughing, while his encyclopedic knowledge of pop culture, literature, and historical events serves as a constant source of conversation. In addition to all of this, he grows alongside his students; he encourages us to broaden our horizons, while pushing his own artistic vision, constantly tackling new styles and mediums. For his genuine interest in our lives and well being, along with his positivity and support, we thank him.
IN LOVING MEMORY
OF
Peter D'Agostino

"When we love, we always strive to become better than we are. When we strive to become better than we are, everything around us becomes better too." - Peter D'Agostino
"A St. Andrew's yearbook does more than chronicle a year at school. It strains to express that this is an important place full of inspirational people, all brought together on a beautiful campus and united by a dream of enacting a good community that will teach us how to live generously and courageously in the world.

We are connected, both with the 300 students living today with the faculty and staff, and with the spirit of graduated seniors who showed us the way in their year of leadership. The Class of 2013, for example, did not live here with us this year, but their spirit and example lived on in all students and adults who were touched and strengthened by their lives.

Peter D'Agostino was one of the leaders in that Class who made an extraordinary contribution to the ethos and culture of St. Andrew's. He somehow understood in his two years with us that repeated gestures and expressions of human kindness shared with all, young and old, could work magic in a school community. He somehow showed us that leadership is not about the accumulation of individual accompaniment but rather an invitation to a life of purpose, collaboration, and humanity.

When we lost Peter this year, the very buildings of St. Andrew's mourned this loss, and we as a community were momentarily at a loss to know how to respond. But then we remembered; we shared stories, moments, conversations, little miracles that came through our friendship and relationships with Peter. We rose as one to fight more courageously and audaciously for a place, an idea, an aspiration that fueled Peter's soul. We remember him on this page and in our hearts."

Dear Friends,
We are so proud of you! Thank you for all that you did over the course of the season! Thank you for racing at Brandywine when we thought we were going to Bellevue. Thank you for listening to our beautiful voices. Thank you for all the track workouts with the color guard. Thank you for taking Counties with passion and positivity in the cold windy rain. Thank you for your stories, daily updates, and laughs during warm up runs, van rides, and pool workouts(...).
Next year we hope that Cindy Lay is still mad at Advanced Student Transportation, Alexandra is still dropping minutes of time, Camy is still telling us about Taylor Swift's new album, Katherine and Kathryn are crushing it per usual, Brookie has gotten over her anger at technology, trash, and people in general, Camille is still quietly looking for Chad-we see you, Juliette is finding dirty money on the ground, Gabi, Victoria and Lian have learned to love the cool down run, Belle and Ryann are still showing up to practice 20 minutes early (we love you and your enthusiasm!), Phoebe has found some warm clothes, Sophia, Sarah, Livia, and Caitlin are back at it, and we are all still jealous of Jessica. We love you all and go get 'em next year.

To the seniors,
Thank you for sticking with us over the past 4, 3, 2, or 1 years. We will miss Izzy's awesome toe shoes, Julie's unattainable level of effort, Monie's willingness to dive into anything, Anna's support and grace, Michelle's sprinting face, Cindy's hair that went into the fire, and Carbery's paradoxical hatred of All About That Bass and attack of hills (Florida? what?). Thanks for your "gift of a great effort."

Love,
Emma and Caitlin
Boys XC

This season was supposed to be a rebuilding year. With one returning varsity runner, a returning head coach, and varsity runners from each grade, expectations were low. But through hard work and grit, and, of course, pain, we finished the season as a serious contender in the state.

From our friends at Tatnall, Flanny and all, to our friends at Tower Hill, it has been a great season full of memories including: the tomato suits, belly flops, and imitations of coaches. We were a ragtag bunch of guys at the start, but by the end, we raced our asses off for each other.

And now, some quotes from the season:

Running here makes me want to bulldoze the forest - Jay Kang

I'm not afraid to lose my job - I will hit you - (The person who said this quote kindly asked to remain anonymous)

Oh f, bees! - An unfortunately high number of people

When the going gets tough, don't go to pot - Mr. O'Connell

If you're not white, please sit down - Mr. O'Connell

Your shorts should be at least one thigh length above the knee - Connor Winiarczyk

Oh when the saints! - Ben Cobb
Go marching in! - everyone else

It's been a great season guys, and you'll tear it up next year. Remember, you have three more years to grind the Pepper!

Love,
Ben, Connor, and Chris
FIELD HOCKEY
It's hard to describe this spunky cast of characters, so we thought we'd go through each:

Alex - Next Generation Sprinter, carry the name with honor.

Gillian - Fastest, most terrifying corner flyer we've ever seen. The Deny-er was born.

Hannah - The Smoothie Queen! Thank you for keeping us laughing during practice.

Meggie - Head injuries are stupid… but while we had you, you were unstoppable!

Isabelle - Your drives were scary, but also so sexy.

Smriti - Your calm confidence on defense saved us so many times.

Karissa - you were a crucial midfielder and an incredibly hard worker. You made it look easy.

Grace - You nearly decapitated some people. But that's okay, because you cleared it out of defense, and for that we love you.

Riley - You were easily the strongest member of our team, mentally and physically. We want to recognize how hard you worked, the toughness and grit you brought to the field. CC <3

Neva - Thank you for all you invested in this team! Your desire to get better was infectious!

Eliza - You were always the most passionate player on field. You wore your heart on your sleeve and pushed us all to work harder for what we wanted.

Liz - You were a clutch playmaker. You caused maybe a million turnovers, and we could always count on you to stop a fast break. You're incredible.

Emma Lea - You were the backbone of this team. You were an indestructible sweeper, and saved us too many times. We love you!

Melina - Stunning, aggressive sideline runs were your trademark. We don't know how you did it time and time again but we loved it.

Morgan - You were the best goalie in the state by our records. Your blasé blocks kept us in the game every time.

Coach Phil - Known for his vicious wet willies ("We have now swapped spit Mlle") and his characteristic sayings ("gnat at a barbecue"), we love you for teaching us essential life skills like army crawling and mine skipping. Also your trivia on Princess Diaries kept us all on our toes.

Duffy - Hair flips and coffee grinders - nuff said

Hurtt - Thank you for all the drills you stole from your son's soccer team, and all your random hilarious moments.

Mlle - No words can encapsulate Mlle. But if we had to try, we would say she's the chillest, most badass Canadian we know, and she's great at making nick names. Thanks for four years. This season has been amazing, and despite our record you all have the potential to take the state by storm next year. We can't wait to see what you do! Thank you for making our last season so special.

We love you,

Carrie and Lily
To the team with the most heart: thank you for making this such an incredible season. Our three goals this season were 1 win a set, 2 win a game, 3 tenacity and we achieved all of them. To the sophomores: there is so much talent along with passion- we were the luckiest seniors to have been able to play with you this year. To the juniors: we know that you are going to do great things next year- lead this team to infinite heights. We wish you all more than luck in your seasons to come. Set new goals, break records, and leave each season better than the last. We wouldn't have wanted to spend out last season with any other group of girls. We couldn't be happier or prouder to have been captains of this triumphant team.

XOXO,
Karley, Jordan, Danica
BOY'S SOCCER

Boys, it was a memorable season. Even though it did not end as we had hoped, we should still be proud of our improvements as a team. This includes our 8 game winning streak and ability to persevere when the season looked rough. It was great being a part of the team and we look forward to seeing you guys grow during the upcoming years. Let's not forget what we accomplished this year. As a team.

Your Captains,
Stans, Ted, Carson, and most of all, with love, Spencer

PS. Congrats Mr. Carroll! The boys are proud.

Boys' Basketball

The Varsity Boys' Basketball team has been a worthwhile experience. We’ve created long lasting bonds and experiences with our brothers in battle. One moment that sticks out is when Rock hit the game winning three in practice. No one expected him to knock it down but he did, and shocked the entire team. We have been full of surprises this year and people who you wouldn’t have expected to contribute, have stepped up to the challenge. We are going to miss playing with you guys, but we know that you will hold it down next year. We love you guys!

To the ladies of SASsywolfpack, this was an amazing season full of hand washing, ball washing, and Michelle Kim. Justin~ your close ups and commentary on the game film is legendary. Abu~ your stat keeping is fan(s)ta(t)stic. Sam~ keep shooting the ball and keep up your sock game. Cherish these next three years. Camille~ YEET. Keep getting those 5 second calls, you’re going to be a killer point guard next year. Lynden~ your runs up the court= FIRE. You’re a true baller. Smriti~ You box out like you’re a moving company, get it? Cause you’re good at box outs? Hehe. Emma Brown~ KEEP THE FEDS OFF YOUR ASSpirations at being such a great player! You’re stronger than anyone. Krusty Krebs~ who lives in a pineapple on the court? Not you cause you’re a ballerrrr. Your ability to finish your shots will make you a key player next year. Olivia~ We’ve never met a player who is SO good, knows it, flaunts it, works it, and at the same time is still the best team player. Keep driving to the basket even if they foul the $#!+ out of you. Eliza~ we love your ability to really penetrate into the paint. It gives us pleasure when you swish the ball and it looks like a nice moist splash. Michelle~ according to my calculations, you’re the MVP of the team this year. We know we kid with you a lot, but the energy you bring is imperative to our success. MaeLing AKA Cottonelle ~ Do you ever feel like the first half of the game is, like, a dream? We do, cause you’re a dreamboat of a baller. You’re the holy trinity: tough, speedy and floppy. Wolfgang~ MEOWWWW. Costa~ Your guac, your no look passes, and your insults to the refs will always be remembered. Thanks for running sprints with us and giving us Pro-tips you learned while playing for the Wizards that made us instantly better.

Ms. Hamilton~ oh wow. What do we say? Thank you for four years of the being on the best team at St. Andrew’s, and the best team we’ll be on in our lives. As the SASsywolfpack Alpha, you’ve taught us so much more than basketball over these four years. We love you. And to the team as a whole, if you decide to get snap off pants next year, send us a pair. We love you all dearly and you are going to kill it next year. Expect to see us at some games next year! Long live the SASsywolfpack!

GIRL'S SQUASH
Dear squish squashers!
Here are some things we learned this season: 1. Don’t piss around in WAYWA. 2. There is a difference between being good and trying hard. 3. Mr Millman loves the JoBros. 4. Stay busy. 5. SQUASH IS SURVIVAL. The beginning was well you know... but we have really come together as a team and are much better than Buffalo Seminary in more ways than one (cough cough sportsmanship). Can’t wait for next year! We love you, Brooquelle and G-racé.
Hey Girls!
We are so proud of you! We loved watching you tear it up in the pool each and every day. Thanks for being positive and dealing with the cold trek over to the pool (Generaux Aquatic Center goin' up on a TUESDAY.) From Mr. Crimmings diving into the pool with his clothes on to Mr. Samulski's gangster hip-hop playlists, we've enjoyed the experiences we've had with you guys. Literally kill it next year—we are so proud of all that you've done and all that you are going to accomplish.

And now for some party (wait, what?) words:
We beat you at eating ice cream at Charcoal Pit but we still love you anyways.
And now for some parting words:
Eat more food and don't go sledding.

LOVE YOU!
Emma, Carbery, and Carter

Boys,
We cannot describe how amazing this season was for the three of us. With the largest team in our years here at St. Andrew's, you provided us with the intensity, the excitement, and the joy that every team strives for. But you provided us with so much more. You provided us with the sense of a family, a reason to push ourselves in those long sets, a reason to step out of our comfort zone every day.

Each and every one made a huge contribution to this team, and allowed for this season to be so successful, with a 9-1 record and a DISCS Championship. From the first meet of the season to the last, it was an honor to call ourselves part of the St. Andrew's Swim team. You all have made this experience one to remember, and we could not have asked for a better team to spend those long, cold, winder days with.

We really burned up the competition this year. Each lawyer and witness worked hard to master the case materials and present an adept interpretation of the case. Through all the Friday night practices, doubled dress rehearsals, and scheduling uncertainties, the team stayed together. All of our work paid off when we made it to the semifinals and held our own against one of the best teams in the state. Some highlights: that awful French accent, all the bad fire puns, Judge Sunshine, Mr. O’Connell and the homeless woman, “My calculator wouldn’t lie to me,” chewing gum in court, various pronunciations of Merteuil, and Thursday dinner trips to Jake’s and Friendly’s. To Cindy, Colin, Juliette, Rachael, Victoria, and Preston: you guys are going to kill it next year.

A TYPICAL NIGHT IN THE JUNGLE...

After study hall, Tina T. starts to check people in. Clara shows off her onesie while Noelle plays All About That Bass on the ukulele. Sam can be found writing the latest chapter of her book. Gillian is texting her boyz, Kennedi is yelling down the hallway, and Dani is looking for some kind of band-aid. Marissa is wearing something animal related and awesome, and Belle tries to keep their triple in check.

As we yell out, “Brush and Wash”, Ayla dreads the walk upstairs. Alex H. is already nestled into her top bunk with her head peeping over the side and Francesca and Tori are basking in their cool blue lighting. Tina E. is putting something magic on her face, while Audrey wanders with a purpose and Cara hides in someone’s room. Margaret wins Brush and Wash and Jolie sasses her way through it.

Lights Out time arrives and Isabel needs to fill her water bottle. Abigail shows us videos of octopi and horses while Dianna yells at her. If you look around, you will see Catherine playing with her high tech alarm clock, Aaliyah still wearing jeans, Stella reading Stephanie Meyer, and Gabi listening to music. Downstairs, Isabelle and Annie are trying to stall the seniors for as long as possible. Lian still waits for Victoria to clean her side of the room. Upstairs, Cindy freaks about something that isn’t scary while Ryann makes it worse.

After Lights Out, Alex C. and Hanna’s light is still on and Phoebe politely asks us to be quiet. In the common room, Madeline is giving massages and Aija is making puppy chow. Caitlin is singing us Chinese songs. Carbery is glaring at Michelle while she eats her soup. Liz is off washing her hands and Charlotte is either sleeping or reading sketchy books.

Living on dorm this year has been absolutely fantastic...and crazy, chaotic, fun and hilarious. We can’t wait to see what you all will do and we love each and every one of you.

To our wonderful, amazing, loving, caring, wonderful, amazing dorm parents: You helped us create the fun, healthy, and safe dorm we wanted to live in. You supported us through more than we could have asked for. Truly, you all were parents for us this year.

Love,
Your Seniors

LOST ALONG THE WAY

ONE WAY
Words will always fall short to describe how much you two mean to me. I won the greatest lottery of life: finding the most hysterically funny, kind, understanding, and chill friends one could ever have. I know I can always count on MCM. You GET ME. I can think of an arsenal of inside jokes & beautiful memories: Illegal sleepovers, do you wanna go to dinner? You wanna go? You’re Grace! Needing clasped to see the eclipse, chicken cordon bleu, papa Johns Vietnamese, braving the dark for Friendly’s, Skipper Chapel, Three Seats in the library, Party in LHS, Hours at AmeriPlaza, the Asylum, Telepathy, It’s fudging four dollars! Exploring the woods, “silly Girls” (Thax Gretchet), Hoodie Allen, Howie Day, Babysitting Clive, H. Physics (DOTX3), Diptych, Basketball, Bets, Making Videos for IAGd, the Tiger outside the window, Kitty, Polly, Annabel Hunger PEM, Lemon Meringue pie. It’s lemon SP get it right. Ed theme song, Peacock, Intellectual Bullying, Dishize, Pandemic, Asking Out Mr. Tassott, Fudging Ludicrous, Kemper in the Chemistry Lab, PUNCHING HUNTER, my sugar cookies, AJR, Legendary Streak, Winter Long Weekend, “Why are your boots so muddy?” Robocop Chick-Fil-A, Turks Academy, Wrestling ROOM DRAMA, Ramen, Seaweed, opening cans, Pudge (like rabbis), “I’m the most innocent person...” I’m actually pissed, Macbeth, confronting Aaron, skinny dipping, Red Bull, MAN PEPE = Doeeeens!?! AMOS 4A, #NERD UP, NORTING, DOMINATRIX, HOLY TRINITY SAS – it was more than magic, it’s been real as heck. You will be my compass no matter where I go. Thank you for all the laughs, lessons, love, and the opportunity to be the happiest I’ve ever been. Rddy – you gave me strength and wisdom in incredible ways. Melina, you are the shit. ILY and I’ll miss you so damn much. Emma, Lea & Emma – our triple was a place of peace, positivity, and pure awesomeness. Love you guys! Chris & Evan – you guys remind me what true friends are.

Keep your winner statuses! Shout out to Meliz, the swim team girls VUX team (and preseasont), GC, mondays muffins, Bagels, Asian Affinity Group, SAM – Remember when? Fun stuff! To all the paths I’ve walked on this campus (literally & metaphorically) & my classmates who led me to them. To my family, to whom I owe everything. Love always, Cindy.
I have too many things to say and not enough space to say it all. There are so many people who have helped me to become the person I am today. I have been inspired and captivated by the friends I have made, the laughs I’ve had, and the endless trips across the Gully. Mom: You are the strongest person I know. I love how you only accept the best I can offer and nothing less. You deserve the world because you tried everything in your power to give it to me. Grandma: You are a strong, proud woman and I love you for the support that you have always given me. Aunt Quita: Your wisdom, love and care for me have fueled me to be the person I am today. Thanks for teaching me resilience. I love you. Tomika: I appreciate your determination to be there for me regardless of what is going on in your life. I love you. Godfather: Thanks for the lectures. I know you care and I love you for it. T. Myers: Thanks for taking me under your wing. Your office was home to lots of emotional growth. Thanks a million. Mrs. Duprey and Ms. Treva: Thank you for being a voice for young women like me on campus. I couldn’t have done it without you two. B. Devine: Thank you for the years of advising. You have been a large part of my life and I love you to pieces. K. Lazar: Living on this dorm has been extraordinary. Thanks for two great years. Prof: You’re the best and I will always be Coronita in some capacity. Netflix: Thank you for starting the next episode without me having to ask. You’re the bestest. Aija: You emit love. Your hugs are legendary and your pure heart has been a blessing these few years. I love you. Charlotte C.: You are beautiful inside and out. I share your disdain for the patriarchy. Stay classy! Anna, Emma and Karley: This is the best dorm on campus and you guys made it this way. Thanks for the support. Girls of L Dorm 2014: Yes, I love you guys. Now get into your cells, inmates. FB6MOEOEB and Catcher: Love yall. I can’t imagine not having my boys with me. You all were the brothers I never asked for but got blessed with anyway. Jordan B.: You have become like a brother to me and your support is priceless. I love you. Myles: You’re a that. It’s ok. I love you anyway. Jersey Roy. Livia: I might go outside one day just because you speak so highly of it. JeHamPoHom: You are a beautiful soul. I want you to know that you always have me by your side. Chef Ray: Those muffins are bangin. Jen, Murph and Kelly: You guys are saints. Ms. Tammy: Thank you for keeping your eye on me these past few years. I appreciate it. Ben: You bring joy to wherever you are. - Songbird. Mr. McSiggle: Thank you for showing me the artist within myself. Mrs. Johnson: Thank you for being a watchful presence on campus. Your support has been priceless. Assata Shakur, Angela Davis, Maya Angelou, Eric Garner, Amadou Diallo, Tamir Rice, Kimani Gray, Troyvon Martin, Malala Yousefzai: To you all, and those that went unnoticed, I owe my indistinguishable need for revolution and justice. Thank you. To Anyone and Everyone: Your life is your own, live it to the best of your ability. You are worthy and you will be fine in the long run.

A final thank you to you all for allowing me to grow as a human being, discover injustice in the world and find my way through it. I am a better person because I’ve known you all.

Class of 2015, I loved doing life with you guys for the past 4 years. Thanks mom and dad for making this all possible and to Hammy for being one heck of an advisor. Thanks to Spence for being the best friend I could have ever asked for. To the quad and squad, thanks for being weirdos with me and for the memories that I'll never forget.
I hope this page isn’t the only mark I’ve left on St. Andrew’s. I’m a little bit nostalgic already. I have a lot of feelings about this place. Like… a LOT. But mostly for the people here. So, thanks for letting me be my weird, slightly inappropriate, cackling self. I know it’s naïve to think that there is ANY other place in the world that will accept me the way St. Andrew’s did, but I can only hope that there are more people out there that somewhat understand what goes on in my weird brain and won’t run away as soon as I open my mouth.

I’m moving out, not moving on.

KMVC: You have made me who I am. I hope that, even if I haven’t recognized it yet, you know that you pushed me in ways I didn’t know I could bend and turned me into one of the Wild Geese that Mary Oliver promised me that I’d be. Thank you for existing and existing so close to me. I love you.

In no particular order.

Midnight Snack: You corrupted me were the best roommate I could have asked for. Love you.

Melina: You are the most appropriately inappropriate person I know, and I love you for it.

Liz: I will never get tired of you. Ever.

Ellie: You’re the (girl)friend that I didn’t know I needed. Nick: You were always there, when I needed you and when I just wanted you around.

Emma: LONG LIVE THE DUNGEON.

Chris: It’s been real, buddy. Peter: You deserve so much. Prans: Couldn’t have done this without you.

Alphonse: I don’t even want to sing without you. Miranda: Thank you for letting me be there for you and being there for me. Brian: Briawn. We’re so platonically in love that it hurts me.

Hugo: Our weirdnesses are compatible. Love you. Evan: You’re the best brother I could have chosen.

Rock: Marry me. Chris G: Thank you for letting me debrief my entire, manic life.

Miller: I love you. That’s mostly it.

Madeline Raphoon Wood

Charlotte: Thanks for three batsh*t crazy years. I’ll always remember the nights before the SATs, when you were possessed, your Spanish musical soundtracks, weird sleeping habits, and teo families. Alja: Thanks for keeping me grounded and for all the late night mac & cheese. Carter: May Zac Efron always be with you. Matt: Lana wishes she had as much talent as us. Thanks for keeping the GAI alive. Keep in touch. Holly: For all the quotes, application help, and long distance, transcontinental calls from Spain. Miranda: Do you love me? Could you earn to love me? Charlie: Keep it weird. Mary: Ice skating, bowling, and How I Met Your Mother. Nick: I hope our DMCs continue. Keep me posted on your life. (I’ll probably be the same as mine). Ben: Chairs at breakfast freshman year. Evan: Always check your pepper shaker tips. Izzy: Childers’ dog costume and the experimental sophomore year triple. Connor: Night tennis and poker. Chris: Thanks for the spontaneous Brown (classroom) workouts. Emma: Lea: Our “smashing” gingerbread house. Grayson: You taught an atheist how to usher. Julie: For all those Saturdays when we (you) thought of things to do. Tiffany: For all the late nights spent shopping at Tiffany’s. Hallie: I love our random chats about life. Anna: Thanks for sharing all the puns and music. Kristen: That weird day in Latin class with the accents. Fell Senior: Thanks for all the nights of potluck food, Truth or Dare, and sketchy “literature” readings. Living with you guys was definitely a highlight of my senior year. Girls of Fell: Take a deep breath. It’s OK. It’s not as bad as you think it is. Alphonso: Vermont, walks, the days when they made minivans, and taking 45 minutes to order take-out. You’ve given me “so much.” Thanks doesn’t begin to cover it.

Thank you, St. Andrew’s

Mr. Speers - I don't know if you remember this or not but when I was out for surgery you sent me this long list of movies and TV shows I should watch and it cheered me more than you'll ever know. Mr. Potter - thank you for letting me lie down on your couch and watch TV during study hall the night after I tore my ACL sophomore year; I was in a bad place, and I needed that time just to wind down. MOSSMOSS, Kristen thanks for supplying me with those addicting sugar cookies at 2 am. August - your existence just makes me happy. Al - thank you for helping me through both my ACL injuries, the reason I am still able to play sports is because of you. I will never forget our quality bonding time EVER YOU ALBERTA. To the class of 2015 - I love you all to the moon and back. If I had more room, I would write something for every single one of you. I can't sum up my love for my friends and the people at SAS in this one page. Honestly don't think I could even sum it up if I had the whole yearbook to do so. St. Andrews has hosted some of the best and worst moments in my entire life, so thank you for both and for teaching me resilience.

SASoy Wolf Fack:
I believe that one day you will all be masters of the famous no-look pass. Playing with you guys is the light in the middle of the dark and dreary winter. Keep fighting. Ms. Hamilton:
Love you all,
Friends Tall, Short, Fast, Slow, Purse
Loud, Quiet, Young and Old:
Thanks for late night poppy chow, golf cart getaways, Cooper Cup victories, study hall adventures, laden sits, quad time, and never going a day without ten laughs.

Liz Grabis
Class of 2015:
Your picture takes up half of this page for many reasons. Eating dinner with you all is the highlight of every day. Love you guys and thanks for everything.

Chescho:
I have enjoyed literally every note we have sung together. Keep doing great things and eating squash bread. Mr. Costa, thank you for developing my love for choral music.

My Teachers:
Thank you for teaching me how to learn and how to lead. I hope that there will be a duplicate of each and every one of you at college next year.

The Animals is the Jungle:
Thank you for making my senior year my favorite year on dorm. Stay happy, stay healthy, and love every minute you have at SAS. Thank you to our wonderful dorm parents and my fellow seniors/mates.

May we all stay as joyful as we are when we bite into Ms. Freasman’s derby pie.

The Grabis:
Thanks for your love, support, and the time you gave me at SAS. Thanks for being the reliable fans at every event ever.

Thanks for a great four years, it wouldn’t have been the same without you. Even after 4 years of St. Andrew’s english, I cannot put into words the unique ways that you each enhanced my time here. I will never forget any of you.

Sincerely,
Ben Cobb
Alphonso – Thanks for the memories: forts in the woods, open mics, and Magic games. You are a great guy, and it was awesome to call you my friend.

Ben – I’ll never forget those countless Magic games and philosophical talks we had. Thanks for rooming with me for two years, even though I couldn’t teach you guitar or how to be organized.

Brandt – Ever since the day we toured together I knew we would be friends. Working with you as jazz co-presidents was awesome, thanks so much.

Connor – You are one heck of an awesome guy and I hope that we can keep in touch. Maybe we’ll run into each other some Friday night in the future.

Charlie and Anthony – It was great having the two of you right next door. Thanks for making dorm so much fun to live on, next year won’t be the same without you guys.

Chris – I wish I had spent more time with you earlier, you have such a great unique personality. You’ve been such a great influence on me and I doubt I’ll ever meet someone quite like you.

Evan – You were a great roommate and an even better friend. Good luck with Summer, even your parents are backing you.

First Echo Hill group – Thank you all for making my second day at St. Andrew’s so easy and comfortable. Echo Hill was a blast thanks to you guys.

Hellie – Thank you for always being there for me when I needed you. You made life so much better with your laughter that would never fail to make me smile. Thanks for pulling me through to the end, and remember, I love you.

Class of 2015 – Thank you all for the last 4 years, you guys made SAS special and I couldn’t have asked for anything better.

Jazz band – You guys are a great group of musicians and I loved being part of it all the way. Don’t look back and keep going forward.

Soccer team – Soccer is great no matter what, but it gets even better when you have a great team. Shoutouts to my fellow seniors: SP, PS, CL, MM, JJ, BA

Special thanks to Mrs. Fitz, Mr. Edwards, Mr. Everhart, Senior Miss Moss, and the class of 2015.
Thanks for sticking with me...

Thank you St. Andrew's

Mr. Everhart - thanks for all that you do for me.
Ms. Hamilton - thanks for everything else.
Mr. Spears, Mr. Porter, Mr. Friskt, Mr. McKeef, Girls XC - you guys are the best!
Thank you for being there always.

Hey Eliza - I'm always thinking about you.

Mr. Friskt, Mr. McKeef, Girls XC - I beat you next year... we will pound you!

Morgan, Tatum, and everyone else...
Thank you for all your hard work.

Carrie, don't know what I did and many of my classes got screwed.

I can't imagine not every day and I'm looking forward.

Carrie, Caron, not really a bit.

Do we hold?

What is the meaning of life? That was all — a simple question; one that tended to close in on one with years. The great revelation had never come. The great revelation perhaps never did come. Instead there were little daily miracles, illuminations, matches struck unexpectedly in the dark; here was one. – Virginia Woolf’s To The Lighthouse

| Caroline | Thank you for being there from the start. We're not sisters just best friends (but we are sisters)! Ellie | Excelsior will always be waiting for you. It's all love, its only love. Thanks to everybody who made my fou years at SAS.

All the boys from South Central, Mr. Costa, Twinnamon, Bananna, Hollz, DiDi, Pranz, Eliza, Mazon, Noxontones, and all my ChoScho kiddies.

Love Y'all
A big thanks to all of the people who have made my time at St. Andrew’s possible, enjoyable and memorable. Thank you to my parents, Peggy, Carroll, Mastrocola, Terrell, Hutch, Al, and the class of 2015; I am grateful for all of the support you have given me during the past 4 years.

Special thanks to: Spencer, Melina, the men of Schmolze 2013-14, Ted, Carson, Oscar, Andy, Grayson, Diana, Holley, Eliza, SWAG, and most of all the crab people/south central for all the funny and exciting memories you guys have given me. I couldn’t have asked for a better group of friends. South Central for life.

Shout out to the future men of SAS: The Guch Boys, WG, EM, JD, DS, RB, SL, CL, BG, PT. Stay safe Shout Out To...

Tiffany, you are one of my best friends at SBS and you were always there whenever I needed you. You were so much and hope we continue after we graduate. XOXO

Jordan, you are one of my closest friends at St. Andrews and I love our friendship. We got each other's back at all times. Have I love your sweetness and a great time at Wesleyan for me and lets continue next year and love you this relationship after this year. too's

Anthony, I love you sooo much whenever I talk to you I always end up having a great time. You are one of the people who talked to me and was so friendly to me on my first year at SBS. I'm going to miss you next year and hope we continue our friendship after graduation.

Pan Don, you are so beautiful and a nice friend/senior-mated at Mass. I love talking to you and will miss missing you next year and hope we continue our friendship after graduation.

Honey, you are the sweetest guy I know at this school. Love when you help me carry my laundry. LOVE YOU BAE XOXO - your only one.

Myles, I guess you're pretty cool. JK you always listen to my complaints and I appreciate it. You are one of the funniest people I know and although you always make fun of me, I will miss you.

Donovan, you are the nicest guy I know. That's why I know at school. I love you. You make me happy being in the same advise, and are a really good friend.

Jett, I really miss you but really enjoy hanging out with you and sharing the study room with you. When you are so fun and make fun of me during basketball practices.

Izzzy, you are my favorite freshman and I care about you so much. I'm happy that you are my son and I love you tons. I will miss you and will always remember you guys.

EmmanLee, I love annoy you and talking to you. Credit to have you as my friend ugly lady. XOXO

Thank you to all the people that made my time at St. Andrews so great. Thank you to my Mom for always being there. Thank you to Mr. Fritz, Mr. Hammond, Terrell, and Tony. Thank you especially to Mrs. Chiu, I couldn’t have made it without you. You have been someone I could always depend on. I Love you.

South Central: I wouldn’t have wanted to spend these four years with anybody else except for you guys. You guys made these the best years of my life so far. SOUTH CENTRAL!!!

Thanks Mike for just being a great friend. You a one of the best friends anyone can ask for.

Thank You Charlie for being a great roommate for 3 years and an amazing friend for 4.

You kept me going when I would just rather quit. I Love You Kaitlyn. SAS would have been impossible without you. I’m happy you into my life when you did. You changed me for the better. 11.11.13

HOLLY, despite being “so different,” you are like a sister to me. I’d never want to eat cheese and fancy crackers with anyone else. WILLIE thank you for always being there. I can’t imagine the person I’d be without you. I love you so much. MADALINE, I’ll always be able to count on your excellent taste and unwavering reason. OLIVIA, you inspire me every day and can always make me laugh. WILL, you’re incredibly genuine - I’ll always admit that about you. KRISTEN, thank you for always pushing me to be my best self, and I can’t imagine how lucky I am to have you in my life. CRAYSTON, punks out, ISIS haters CARSON, you’re fantastic. Stay spontaneous. LILY, the Lord’s prayer will never be the same. JAMES, you’re one of the most honest humans I know. CHRIS, I know I can always be myself around you. PHOEBE, you’ll go far. I believe in you. SALLY, you’ll always be my Troy. EMMA, you make me a better person. BEE is always funnier after 11:30 at night. BEYONCÉ pronounced “Truca” QUAN, soul-sister-in-laws MILLIE, bagels always taste better at 7:30 in the morning on your birthday. CAROLINE, my study buddy - hold the fort down next year. OSCAR, you’re a brilliant person. I’m lucky to call you a friend. CARRIE, I’d switch beds with you any day. OLIMPIANS, you’re all amazing people, stay that way. BRIAN, MYLES... but? AUGUST, love you, buddy. FELIX, you’re the best brother. I could ask for ELENA, our jam sessions are some of my most favorite memories. MATT, idle. I think the bold thing may be growing on me. PETER, you are so sweet! I’m so glad you’re being a part of these 4 years. LUKE, you’ve taught me so much about myself. Thank you. NATTYM, our tenacity will never be matched. MAURYS, you’re a fantastic person. Only child. COIN, if you can somehow see this, we had some great times. Love you more than you know. FABS, despite you only being here for 2 years, my best memories of the last 4 years are with you. May you always be happy. Thanks for being there. Incessant to say... generous, supportive, you have done more for me than I respect. My favorite room had some great ADYKCI, ED, NE, BG. Chronicles. 28:30. MOM: PEARL and to everyone else, thanks for being a part of these 4 years, and here’s to many more. Love, Anna. **

He once lived in a single and a double: in the same year...

He has played every instrument in the Orchestra...

He has done drawing, painting, acting, and photography: just for fun...

He holds the record for starting the most clubs: in his Freshman year...

He was one of the members of the Few and Proud of Schmolze...

He was the very model of a modern major general...

He is: the most interesting man at St. Andrews...

Finding a place where you can truly be yourself is rare and incredible. St. Andrew’s is where I grew up and I am so thankful for every moment.

It was weird, it was fun, it was life changing.
THANK YOU

Thank you St. Andrew’s for allowing and encouraging me to become the person I am today. St. Andrew’s is, indeed, a special place, but it is the people that make it so extraordinary. It is these people that I owe so much and that I most want to thank: Grayson, you are my rock...you listen to every insane thing I say without judgement, chiming in on occasion to remind me that what I’m saying or thinking about doing is crazy. We’ve had a great four years and I’m to miss you bud. Carbery, you’re my soul mate and our relationship never ceases to amaze and confuse me in the most wonderful ways, but I know that no matter what or how, I will always love you. Stay crazy. Jordan, I love you like a brother because you are and I’ll miss being your roommate, but this isn’t goodbye. Carson, we’ve had a lot of good times and here to many more. Pranav, I love you dude and I’m going to miss living with you. Morgan, btw we are still running away! Stans, we’ve had some good times and I’ll miss you bro. Myles, you may look like Timon, but you’re my bro and I’ll miss you. Ellie, I’ll always remember Allie’s house and all the fun we’ve had, but this isn’t really goodbye, after all, we’re basically neighbors. Sally, you’re the only person I can share my weird jokes with and I love you, thanks for caring about me and laughing at all my jokes, regardless of whether they are funny or not. Olivia, your crazy and I love you. Holley, I know I’m mean sometimes, but you know I care about you. Matt, you’re the funniest guy I know and I’ll miss you. Karley, I love you and I’ll miss our heart to hearts. Freak Nasty (Danica), I admit that you are the real Freak Nasty. Dede (Diana), you’re a good friend and even though I sometimes pretend to hate you, I’ll miss you very much. Mr. McGiff, you constantly remind me not to take myself too seriously and I’m grateful for that. Thanks for being a great teacher, I’ll miss you. Willrob, you’ve kept me in line and I’m grateful for that, but most of all I’m grateful for all you’ve taught me about being a man, which is far more than I could’ve learned in any classroom. I know I laugh at you a lot, but I do look up to you. We’ve had some good times and I look forward to many more. I love you man. Mom and Dad, I haven’t forgotten you. You have made all of this possible and I am so grateful to you. I still feel guilty about abandoning you four years ago, but you know that you are still the people I owe everything I am today to and I love you so much! Also, shout out to all my Freshmen, my boys Henry & Willie, and everyone else who knows I will miss them!

Ted: Open mics, Prom asks and countless other stunts, and here we are. Thanks for all the adventures, and for teaching me how to take risks.

Connor: Your creativity knows no bounds, and neither does your desire to use it on the student body. Thanks for making life on Voorhees interesting.

Ben: Slow and steady wins the prize for the most fulfilling life! Thanks for making every night “Friday Night Magic”.

Miller: The Coca Cola tree, anime and late night cram sessions are memories I will keep forever. Oh, and the clutter...

Brandt: You have brought out the weirdest in me, and for that I am eternally grateful. “AH1UvY0u”.

Madeline: My Cherie Amour, I could describe all the ways you have made me a better person, but I would need a book.

Aija: My beloved wolf. I hope that our passion for music brings us together again someday.

Chris: Hustling was a blast! Let’s find the nearest pool table and do it again sometime.

Mom, Dad, Julio and Vanna: I will never be able to repay you for all you have done for me. Thank you.

Kristen: Yearbook has been a memory in itself. I’m glad I got the chance to do it with you.

Bill Hu: Keep composing. You’re on your way, even if you don’t realize it.

Vincent: I’m sorry I wasn’t more present for you, but you didn’t really need me to show you the ropes, did you?

The Noxontenors: The time has come for you to hold your own! I have faith, though. You should too.

Eliza: If only we had started singing together sooner. Being melodramatic was fun.

Ramsey: I wish we had more musicals to do together! I will miss our chemistry on stage. Thank you.

Pranks: Here's to the past four years! Thanks for always being there for me when we had our DMGs at 3 in the morning. Thanks for being such an amazing president. And thanks for never revealing Carlos to the general public. We made it dude! Stay classy.

Luke: SWAG was such a hassle, but I'm glad we suffered through it together. Also, let's make a pact to never cross-dress ever again.

Garbery: We make a better team than Drake and Nicki. Words cannot express how amazing you are. The past four years were a blast with you always there for me. I love you. Cardboard!

Morgan: Thanks for always being on my side. You were one of the funniest people on SWAG and I promise I'll visit you every now and then. Stay salty.

Will: Thanks for being the craziest, sassiest, most eccentric friend ever.

Myles: Thanks for making fun of Will with me. I'm gonna miss our late night cyphers on Hiller.

Brian: Thanks for being one of the chillest guys I know. The past three years with you were a blast!

Chris: Thanks for being such a welcoming guy. It was great reliving on Fleming with you this past year. I wish you all the best!

Thomas: You've always been so much fun to hang out with. You're one of the smartest and most insightful guys I know. Stay pretty.

Connor: Please do stand up. That is all.

Jenessa: I'll never forgive you for killing the fro, but I must say, it was a fun three years with you.

Madeline: You were the best Film partner ever! Not only that but you're one of the smartest and most artistic people I've ever met. Don't ever change!

Peter: Thanks for keeping South Central alive.

Melina: 12/1/12 ILY so much.

Nick: Congrats! You're my last surviving roommate. But all jokes aside, thanks for being one of the nicest guys ever. You rock, dude!

Mike: Thanks for being the chillest guy ever. It was fun rooming with you freshman year. Miss you, man.

Ben: Keep doing great things, man. Just promise to stay away from Jaseen.

Brandt: I feel like we have way too many inside jokes between the two of us, but that's alright.

Die Potato! Patrick: I'm pretty bummed that you couldn't come back. But I'm so proud of you and what you've been able to accomplish.

Patry! Reck: Thanks for always being able to make me laugh no matter how bad things get.

Andrew: Thanks for being such an awesome roommate. I love you, man!

GUC Boys: You guys were the best activism group at SAS. Keep doing the amazing work that you do!

Jordan: It sucks that we won't be going to the same school, but I do wish you all the best at Wes. -Gloria.

Duncan: There was never a day where I saw you without a smile. You're one of the happiest people I know. Never ever change!

Neel: Without your help, SWAG wouldn't have been complete. Keep doing amazing work, man. Also, keep Addison in line.

Sammy: Thanks for being such a cool and funny guy. I wish you all the best your senior year!

Ellie: I love you so much. You're one of the most talented people at SAS and I hope that you never give up on your dream. I'll see you on the big screen!

Hugs: Without you, I don't think I would've ever watched so much Netflix. Thanks for the laughs, the laughs, and our friendship.

Mason: Thanks for being such a great Spanish buddy.

Fleming: Each and every one of you are fantastic young men. I love you all and I wish you a magnificent three years at SAS.

Terrell: I don't think I would've ever asked for a better advisor. You, me, and Jensen had some great times. Thanks for everything.

There's so many more I wish I could thank here, but unfortunately, I don't have enough space.

So to all St. Andreans—both old and new—thank you for the best four years of my life.
Thank you St. Andrew's for a great four years. Thanks to my family and my advisor, Al for supporting me throughout my time here. Thanks to Melina for always being there for me and making my time here so special.
Thank you guys so much for....

....the best year of my life. I hope you are all doing great and I will just wish you the best of luck for your upcoming college experience. But I know you will all do great anyways. I will always love and miss you so much and there could never be a cooler class than you guys.

My four years here were filled with many “first time” experiences. Every room and hallway has an amazing memory of its own. I’ve made many friends, found my true self, accepted my quirkiness and made an impression on the school. I’ve matured, yet remain youthful and innocent at heart. Many of my craziest dreams came true at St. Andrew’s, making it my second home. I never would have imagined myself to come out of my shell, but at SAS anything is possible. I am so grateful towards my parents for taking the painful risk of letting their youngest study away from home, because I would have never seen the world as I do now, if it weren’t for SAS.

George H W Bush

Dear...

Class of 2015, thank you for being my friends and family. I can’t express how much y’all mean to me. You guys are the reason I call St. Andrew’s home and you guys are the reason these have been the best four years of my life. I know, wherever I go in life, I will have you guys, and you guys will have me.

St. Andrew’s, thank you for being my sanctuary. Thank you for being home to my faith, family, and friends, my memories, my experiences, and my growth.

Mr. Geiersbach, thank you for keeping your house open when I needed to crash, thank you for playing Chinese ping-pong with me. Thank you for cheering me on at cross-country races, thank you for giving me advice. Thank you for sharing your contagious passion, enthusiasm, and love. Thank you Mr. Geiersbach, for who I am and what St. Andrew’s is, could not have been without you.

The entire faculty and staff, thank you for making such a large impact on my life. Thank you Mr. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Roach, Mr. DeSalvo, Mr. O’Connell, Ms. Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Tower, Mr. Meier, Mr. Finch, Dr. J, Mr. Myer, Mr. Crimmins. I can’t tell you guys how much you meant to me over my four years. Thank you Mr. Gold for your help and guidance. Thank you Mrs. Gold, Mr. Childers, and Mr. and Mrs. Everhart for putting up with brisket in your kitchen. Thank you Ms. Hagenbach for providing competition in Housemasters.

Fleming Boys, never have I seen a dorm with more potential than you guys – and my freshman year dorm was pretty good. Y’all are going to kill it the next 3 years.

Fleming Seniors, you guys were the best team I could have ever asked for. Whether it was late night talks, not signing in, the confusing duty sheets, or corralling the boys during fire drills, study hall, or lights-out - I will always cherish the memories I had with you guys.

All my friends have made such a large impact on me, I hope I have made at least part of that impact on you guys. All. Wherever life takes us, let us not disconnect. We share a common bond. We are St. Andrews. See you on the outside of the bubble! [Name], thank you. Because if you’re reading this, then you have been a part of my life and you have influenced me. I didn’t forget you, the real estate market is just pretty tight on these 8x11 pages.

I guess I have to put initials down now. If these are yours, you deserve it. To everyone over the last four years: TH, AN, KS, FO, RA, GR, EA, TR, ID, E!

Sincerely,

Christopher Gsell

AD and LF: Thanks for keeping me on my toes and being some of the best friends I could have asked for.
To BG MM BT AM SW CC BA JS DH GH MB BH ML RP IT JP HS and JJ, you have helped keep a smile on my face for the last 4 years.

Thank you to the faculty, staff, and the rest of the student body who have helped me along this path. The changes that I have seen in myself would not have been possible without all of your help.

And of course, to my parents, who without both of you, I don’t know where I would be. You are the best, most supportive parents I could have asked for, and I owe everything to you. I love you both so much.
Thomas Goelet Berkowitz

A tremendous four years. Looking back, I could not imagine my experience to be so successful and transformative without the company of my friends, teachers, coaches, mentors, and family.

Thank you.

Thank You St. Andrew’s

For the opportunity to experience all that is St. Andrew’s

For the teachers who instilled the desire to learn

For the advisors who always believed in Liam even when he didn’t believe in himself

For the coaches who challenged Liam to give his all on and off the fields

And for the entire SAS community who welcomed our son and nurtured him into the caring, compassionate, and kind young man he has become.

We are forever grateful for the opportunities Liam has been given at St. Andrews

We thank God everyday for the gift He gave us in you!

From Day One, you’ve been a handful of energy, compassion, and curiosity. You’ve given us countless hours of laughter and tears and we could not love you more than we do right now! We are so thankful for your years at St. Andrew’s School, and we have enjoyed watching you develop your mind and your body and your heart.

We are so proud of the gentleman you have become, and we anxiously await the next milestone you race toward (we’ll just hang on and enjoy the ride)! You are deeply loved by your whole family. We pray blessings on your days ahead and ask God to hold you, to guide you and to always be with you.

Dear Reader,

How would you sum up a year of your St. Andrean experience in just a few pages? Especially one with so many unique experiences? As Editors of the Griffin, we have attempted to answer this question for you, and as a result, have produced a collection of memories that we hope captures the spirit of the students, the effort of the faculty and the personality of the school. Though it is impossible for a stack of paper to completely capture something so ethereal, it is our hope that this year’s Griffin helps you remember that personality that is often forgotten over time.

To the Classes of 2016, 2017, and 2018: The amount of nostalgia contained in this book would not exist without the memories you have created. As the next year rolls around, never forget that, and never stop daring yourselves to make more experiences. Oh, and bring your cameras, too.

To the Junior Editors; Olivia, Neely, and Wit: We have never felt more confident in the future of the yearbook. Each of you is unique in your own way, and while you might not know it yet, you guys compliment each other perfectly. There is a reason we chose you three, and as crunch time comes next year, you will see why. Thank you for all your help this year. You have truly been great editors, teammates, and friends.

To Mr. Meier: Thank you for sticking with us through the thick and thin. You were present every Monday night. You responded to every one of our emails, especially the frantic ones. And you were there with us for the all-nighter, and will be there for the Junior Editors next year. Thank you.

As a last word, we want to thank the class of 2015. As you crack open this yearbook, know that all of the great memories you see in this book are a result of the leadership, character, and vitality of this class. We hope that you look at the Griffin with fondness and sentimentality, with pride for yourself, the class of 2015, and St. Andrew’s as a whole. It is not easy making a yearbook, but it is because of you that we do it. We hope that through this book, the class of 2015 can be accurately remembered as #MakingHiStory. Thank you for a great four years.

Cheers,
The Editors
